C-D DIRECTOR ASKS PUBLIC TO COOPERATE IN TEST ON FRIDAY

Countians were asked today by William G. Weaver, county Civil Defense director, to tune in WGET after the sounding of the "alert" signal in Friday's Civil Defense Air Raid test.

Pointing out that the alert signal may be given at any time to warn the public to listen for an announcement, Weaver said it has been decided to carry through on that part of the program Friday to accustom the public to expect information following sounding of the "alert" signal.

Radio will be used in connection with Friday's test because radio would be used should there be an alert for hurricanes, tornadoes, or other disaster, or danger of fall-out, etc.

To Use Test Message

During an actual air raid, when radio might not be in use, loud speakers would be employed to give information.

During Friday's test Weaver will give a test message over WGET after the sounding of the "alert" signals which will be used as a warning of an impending test air raid drill and as the "all clear" signal afterward.

The hour for the drill has not been announced. Weaver has asked fire companies throughout the county to have someone on duty at the fire truck radio sets from 10 o'clock Friday morning so that the message of the raid may be quickly translated into warning sounds on sirens and whistles.

During the test, traffic will be halted at the sounding of the "take cover" signal — short blasts on whisles or a fluctuating sound on sirens. Pedestrians will be asked to take cover. Auxiliary police, who will halt traffic, will also take cover during the period of the test alert, and resume their stations when the "alert signal" sounds again, as the "all clear," to aid in moving traffic after the halt.

SCRIBE TELLS OF JAMBOREE

Patrick H. Roth, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Henry Roth, South St., a member of Explorer Post 78 of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here, is one of 20 youths from the Black Walnut District attending the National Jamboree at Valley Forge.

He promised to write a story daily from the Jamboree giving details of the activities of the local contingent. His first report, received this morning, said:

"Work, work, work and more work is what the first day at the Jamboree is like. When we arrived we set up the site and are still working on it as I write.

"The Peace Light will burn no more, as it has been condemned. It caught on fire last night, but is not too damaged on the outside.

"We had our Jamboree medical exam this evening (Tuesday) and received our Jamboree neckerchiefs. I can't give too many details of the Jamboree today because I haven't seen much of it as we have been working. Send you more tomorrow."

Former Resident Marks 95th Birthday

Mrs. Rachel Young, Purcellville, Va., who lived for 10 years in Gettysburg with her son, Robert, who was manager of the refectory at the Seminary, observed her 95th birthday anniversary on July 5.

Visiting her on her birthday were her daughter, Mrs. Verda Osborne, High Point, N. C.; her son, Rush S. Young, and his wife of San Diego, Calif., and many other relatives and friends.

For four years, Mrs. Young pieced quilts for needy Korean children. Although she no longer does this work, she continues to help her daughter-in-law with the housework and takes a keen interest in happenings around her and in world affairs.

PROPERTY TRANSFERS

Gettysburg Grad Is Steel Co. President

William A. Cook, Brookline, Pa., a native of Philadelphia and a 1937 graduate of Gettysburg College, has been elected president of the Phoenix Iron and Steel firm and the Phoenix Bridge Co.

A member of the board of directors, Cook has been with the company for 17 years. He is also vice president and a board member of the Phoenix Bridge Co. and the Barium Steel Corp. He succeeds Rudolph Eberstadt, former president of both the iron and steel firm and chairman of the parent firm, Barium Steel.

BASIC SUPPORT PRICE ON WHEAT WILL BE $2.20

The basic price support rate for 1957 crop wheat grown in Adams County will be $2.20 per bushel for No. 1 grade, H. S. Schwartz, chairman of the county agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today. Mr. Schwartz has been named chairman to succeed the late Roy A. Weaner, who died in June.

Schwartz said it was believed most Adams County wheat will qualify as "No. 3, light garlicky," which will reduce the price support to $2.11 for wheat stored on the farm.

Some smut is also anticipated in some county wheat which will further reduce the support price by two cents for light smut and six cents for smutty.

List Warehouses

The amount cut from the basic $2.20 figure for various grades, etc., follows: No. 2, one cent; No. 3, three cents; No. 4, six cents, test weight only; No. 5, nine cents, test weight only; light smut, two cents; smutty, six cents; light garlicky, six cents; garlicky, 15 cents; mixed, two cents; Kawvale, 20 cents.

Approved county warehouses and loan space available have been listed. Those to which most grain from this area will be taken are: Starner Grain and Feed, Hampton, 27,000 bushels space available; Cargill Inc., Marietta, 750,000 bushels loan space available.

Through July 22 the Starner base is $2.09 and Cargill, $2.11, the county office reported.

Other Instructions

The Cargill elevator will not accept garlicky wheat this year, the ASC chairman also announced. He added that truckers who move wheat to Marietta and garlic is found in it have three choices. They may retain the wheat and dispose of it as they see fit; they may sell the wheat to Cargill or they may ask Cargill to trans-ship the garlicky wheat to its elevator at Albany, N. Y., where space is available for loan wheat grading garlicky.

If the producer decides to authorize Cargill to ship the garlicky wheat to Albany, he will net approximately $1.79 per bushel for wheat grading No. 2 garlicky after deductions for transportation, handling and drying. The net value per bushel to the producer, however, may be less than $1.79 if the moisture content of the wheat exceeds 13.5 per cent at the time of

Maryland Driver Is Held For Court

Marshall A. Morningstar, Adamstown, Md., who has arrested Wednesday morning for driving while under the influence of intoxicants, is being held in jail today in default of $1,000 bail for the next session of court. Morningstar was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder today.

Borough police arrested Morningstar in front of the engine house Wednesday morning when, according to police, his driving was jeopardizing the safety of pedestrians. It was also believed that his car had struck another vehicle.

FIRE DESTROYS RECAPPING SHOP IN EMMITSBURG

Fire gutted the Emmitsburg Tire Recapping Shop on Route 15 near Emmitsburg this morning at 6:10 o'clock. Before firemen could get the flames under control the shop and most of its contents were destroyed. Estimated damages were between $20,000-$25,000.

The Recapping Company is owned by Mrs. David L. Neighbors, De-Paul St., widow of David L. Neighbors, who was killed in an automobile accident on the Taneytown Rd. on June 18.

Both Emmitsburg and Thurmont Fire Companies handled the blaze with the Emmitsburg unit arriving a few minutes after they had been alerted by a passing motorist, Edward Peters, that the shop was on fire.

Cause Undetermined

Cause of the fire is undetermined, but Emmitsburg Fire Chief, John Hollinger Jr., said that the fire seems to have started in an oil burner in the boiler room. The rubber and vulcanizing materials quickly caught fire. Evidently, Hollinger reported, the blaze must have had a good start before Peters noticed it on his way to work.

The Emmitsburg Fire Company pumped water from a hydrant on the property while the Thurmont group used another hydrant about 1,500 feet away. There was no damage to nearby property.

VFW CHANGES ANNUAL DUES

Membership in the Gettysburg Post 15, Veterans of Foreign Wars, now totals 575 which is slightly over the membership goal for the year, according to a report at Wednesday evening's meeting of the organization at its home on E. Middle St.

Other reports showed that all of the VFW posts in the 21st District, which includes Adams and York Counties, are over their membership goals for the year.

A motion adopted several meetings ago raising dues from $4 to $6 a year was rescinded and in August a new motion will be voted upon setting the dues at $5 per year.

Members of the firing squad appeared in new uniforms including black helmet liners with a VFW emblem, tropical worsted suits, combat boots and white pistol belts. The first public appearance in the new uniforms will be in the state VFW encampment parade at Harrisburg Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

It was announced that Commander Patrick D. McDermitt and Past Commander Francis Wisotzkey, who will be installed Saturday as district commander, will head the local delegation to the state VFW meeting at Harrisburg.

Driver Is Fined $15 After Crash

Owen P. Shinham, 35, York Springs R. 2, paid a fine of $15 and costs before Justice of the Peace Robert Bell on a charge of failing to yield the right of way following an auto accident at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Heidlersburg intersection.

Police said Shinham was driving east on the Biglerville-East Berlin Rd. and his car struck the side of an auto being driven north on the Harrisburg Rd. by Michael Paul Smyth, 22, Syracuse, N. Y. Damage was estimated at $100 to the Shinham car and $150 to Smyth's vehicle. No one was injured.

Supreme Court Authorizes U.S. To Turn Girard Over To Japan

At the end of the opinion, the court said:

"There is every reason to believe that trial of U. S. Army Specialist 3.C. William S. Girard in the Japanese courts will be conducted with the utmost fairness."

Administration Victory

The decision was a major victory for the administration, which has contended that refusal to turn Girard over to the Japanese would be a grave threat to America's security. The administration argument was that if the agreements under which Americans overseas may be tried by foreign courts for off-duty acts were cancelled, U. S. forces would have to come home.

Opinion Excerpts

The decision was a setback for forces in Congress which contend the U. S. Constitution covers GIs overseas and they must have its full protection.

"United States troops are stationed in many countries as part of our own national defense and to help strengthen the free world struggle against communist imperialism," the opinion today said.

"The matter of jurisdiction in cases of offenses against the laws of host countries, whether by our servicemen abroad or by servicemen of other countries in the United States, is dealt with by mutual agreements.

"Mutual Trust"

"In the operation of this system in Japan there has been the greatest measure of mutual trust and cooperation.

"Since the present arrangement became effective in October 1953, Japan, in the overwhelming majority of the cases in which it had primary right to try American personnel, has waived that right in favor of U. S. action."

The opinion expressed confidence that U. S. authorities "will see that all evidence is available" to Girard and his counsel for the Japanese trial, "and will render every proper assistance to him and his counsel in protection of his rights."

Girard is accused of the Japanese equivalent of manslaughter in the death of a woman on a firing range.

Guides Assn. Takes Council Memberships

The Gettysburg Battlefield Guides' Association at its meeting Wednesday evening at the engine house, E. Middle St., voted to take eight $35 memberships in the Gettysburg Travel Council and two $25 memberships in the Chamber of Commerce.

Reports by President Kenneth Johns showed publication of 30,000 guide folders for distribution has been completed and that the organization has spent approximately $750 so far this year toward advertising Gettysburg.

Thirty-one of the 45 members of the association attended the meeting.

MARKET ADVANCES

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved slightly higher in moderate trading early today.

Key issues rose from fractions to around a point but there was a good assortment of losers in the same range.

The market was edging even further into new high ground for 1957 after achieving a new peak yesterday. But the advance was hesitant.

Losses showed among steels, aircrafts and chemicals. Leading rails were generally higher. Oils and airline issues made gains. Some specialties rose vigorously.

Excessive heat takes more than four times as many lives annually as excessive cold.

Those are facts on excessive heat presented by the National Safety Council.

Heat cramps and heat exhaustion—results of excessive heat—come from over-exposure to sun or intense heat Heat cramps are caused by excessive loss of salt from the system through perspiration and are identified by cramps in the abdomen and in arm and leg muscles.

Heat exhaustion — which doesn't always accompany heat cramps — has these symptoms: paleness, chills, dizziness, nausea, abnormal sweating, rapid and shallow breathing, rapid and weak pulse, weakness, below-normal temperature and skin either hot or cold and clammy.

Unconsciousness and possible death may result in severe cases, the Council said.

Heavy exertion in abnormally high temperatures—engine rooms, foundries, steel mills, bakeries and laundries, for example—may cause heat sickness.

Most susceptible to heat sickness are persons not used to high temperatures, those in poor health or previous sufferers from it. Here's how it can be prevented:

1. Avoid alcohol and ice water. Instead, drink cool water and citrus fruit juices. Eat vegetables and easy-to-digest foods.

2. Wear light, loose clothing. Avoid over-fatigue. Bathe daily and get plenty of sleep.

3. Replace body salt lost through excessive perspiration by salting your food or taking salt when you take a drink of water.

First aid for heat exhaustion should include these points:

1. Remove the victim to circulating air

2. Keep him lying down. Apply blankets over and under him.

3. If he's conscious, give him warm liquids to drink—also salted water (a teaspoonful to a pint).

PLAN BUS TRIP TO PSU AUG. 8

County Agent Frank S. Zettle today announced plans for the annual bus tour to Pennsylvania State University on Thursday, August 8.

The touring farmers will visit the five new dairy barns constructed at Penn State and view the university's dairy herd. Visits will also be made to the experimental fruit orchard there, to the solar poultry house described as the mos modern poultry house in the country; to the beef barns where are kept some of the nation's leading blood lines in beef brands; to the flower gardens where more than 1,000 different annuals and 250 hybrids tea roses may be seen, plus a tour of the campus.

Sponsored by the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association the tour will begin at 5:30 o'clock on the morning of August 8 from in front of the Cumberland Typ. election house on the Biglerville Rd., just north of here. At 5:40 a stop will be made to pick up additional tourists at the Biglerville High School. The last stop in the county will be at Wolf's Garage in York Springs at 6 o'clock that morning. The group plans to return at 8 o'clock that night.

HOLLISTER QUITS

The resignation will take effect when a successor qualifies.

President Eisenhower accepted the resignation with regret. He noted that Hollister, who has served two years in the ICA position, already has stayed on longer than he had planned.

REV. SEIWELL PRESENTS HIS RESIGNATION

The Rev. Porter W. Seiwell, pastor of Redeemer's Church, the United Church of Christ (Evangelical and Reformed), Littlestown, submitted his resignation to the consistory of that church on Wednesday evening. Pastor Seiwell has accepted a call to First Church, the United Church of Christ, Salisbury, N. C. He and Mrs. Seiwell and children, Martha and Richard, will be moving the third or fourth week in August.

In his letter to the Consistory, Pastor Seiwell expressed his "deep appreciation for the love and affection, the cooperation and loyalty shown him during his pastorate."

"You are a great church," the Rev. Mr. Seiwell stated to the consistory, "and I know that Redeemer's Church will progress mightily under your new pastor and that you will love him and his family as you have loved me and mine."

A denominational college, Catawba College, from which the Rev. and Mrs. Seiwell were graduated, is located in Salisbury. First Church is the college church for United Church of Christ students.

While in Littlestown, Pastor Seiwell has taken an active part in the life of the community. He is a member of the Lions Club and is serving as president of the Littlestown Little League. He has been in demand as a guest speaker at many public affairs. Mrs. Seiwell has taught in the first grade of the Rolling Acres School and has been active in the denominational work of the church, having served as president of the Mercersburg Synodical Women's Guild.

Disaster Fund Of Red Cross Grows

Donations to the Red Cross hurricane disaster fund from Adams County jumped to $221.55 today as chapter headquarters acknowledged donations from a growing list of contributors.

The Menallen Friends' Sabbath School at Flora Dale sent in $12.55 and there was a $15 donation from Mrs. Virginia Huddle. A "friend from Gardners" sent in $10 and there were a number of smaller donations.

Reporting renewed appeals from national headquarters for gifts to help victims of Hurricane Audrey in devastated sections of Louisiana, Chairman George W. Naugle of the county chapter said: "When you donate to this special disaster fund you help to feed, shelter and clothe people who have been made homeless and penniless by the hurricane. You also help rehabilitate families and rebuild homes. We believe Adams County will respond generously to this appeal for $1,000."

Donations may be taken or sent to the Red Cross office on Baltimore St.

Polio Vaccine For Adults On Tuesday

Adults will have an opportunity to obtain Salk polio vaccine at a special clinic to be held Tuesday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock at the Moose Lodge, York St.

The vaccine is provided under a program worked out between the Moose lodge and the local medical authorities. The Moose furnish the cost of the vaccine and the location and the medical authorities furnish the staff for the clinic. Dr. John Knox will be the physician in charge.

First, second or third shots, whichever is required, will be given to all adults between the ages of 20 and 40 at the public clinic.

ELECT TEETER TO COMMITTEE OF D.A. ASSN.

District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter was elected a member of the executive committee of the Pennsylvania Association of District Attorneys at the annual meeting at Galen Hall which closed Wednesday.

Other officers named included Park Loose, Hollidaysburg, president; P. Richard Thomas, Meadville vice president; Harold F. Bonno, Shamokin, secretary-treasurer; Robert P. Grannis, Franklin; Frederick O. Brubaker, Reading; Albert Aston, Wikes-Barre; Fred A. Orban Jr., Somerset, and F. Porter Wagner, Danville, executive committee members.

Judge H. Robert Mays, 74, Berks County president judge well known to attorneys here, suffered a heart attack on the final day of the convention.

Harry J. Anslinger, U. S. commissioner of narcotics and the U. S. representative on the United Nations Narcotics Division, told the attorneys that the work of the United Nations in controlling narcotics at its source and during its transportation "is worth the entire amount the U. S. pays toward operation of the entire United Nations in all activities. If that control did not exist it would cost us as much to fight narcotics as we now spend for all U.N. purposes."

He said California ranks as the worst state for narcotic problems in the U. S. Pennsylvania is sixth, with the problem centering in the Philadelphia-Pittsburgh areas. He urged passage of laws in Pennsylvania permitting stiffer penalties for illegal narcotics distributors. With Ohio, Maryland and other nearby states "making it tougher" for the distributors, "Pennsylvania is becoming a haven for them," he said.

4-H Bus Trip To Baltimore Aug. 3

Plans for the annual 4-H and Senior Extension bus tour were announced today by Fred H. Attinger, associate Adams County farm agent.

The trip will cost $2.75 per person for transportation and ferry ride across the bay. The group plans to leave here early on the morning of Saturday, August 3, and visit Baltimore and Tolchester Beach, across the bay from Baltimore on the eastern shore of Maryland.

DIVORCE RECOMMENDED

Attorney Edward B. Bulleit, as master in the divorce action brought by Earl F. Woods, Littlestown R. 2, against Mary A. (Kiser) Woods, Hanover, recommends the divorce on grounds of desertion in his report to the court filed with the prothonotary Wednesday afternoon.

CAR WINDOWS BROKEN

Burman Beamer, Gettysburg R. D., reported to borough police this morning at 2 o'clock that Beamer's brother, Arthur, threw stones at Burman's car, parked on the Ice and Storage lot with Burman in it, and broke four windows of the car.

FIREMEN MAY CLEAR $10,000 FROM CARNIVAL FOR APPARATUS

"The most successful battle anniversary program so far" was the summation of reports of committees at a meeting of the Gettysburg Fire Department Wednesday evening at the former CCC Camp on W. Confederate Ave.

Income, so far, was reported at $23,788.90. No estimate of expenses was made but it was anticipated that the battle anniversary program will net approximately $10,000 to the fire company.

The report of the treasurer showed $11,864.14 in the apparatus fund toward purchase of the $23,000 fire engine which is scheduled for delivery next week. It was anticipated that a substantial amount of the profit from the 94th Battle Anniversary acivities can be put into the apparatus fund this year, helping to keep the debt incurred by the purchase of the new engine to a minimum.

$9,343 In Donations

Profits from this year's Battle Anniversary will be lower than normal proportionately because of the expense involved in making permanent installations of light, sewer and water at the Recreation Field to establish the new festival site used there for the first time this year. The reports of the committee chairmen showed the firemen well pleased with the new site as "higher, drier and larger" than the prior site used for the festival.

The reports showed receipts of $14,445.65 from the festival held in connection with the Battle Anniversary program. The remaining $9,343.35 came from town, county and business solicitation and other donations received.

Plan Picnic For Auxiliary

Glenn Weishaar, general chairman for the battle anniversary said: "I want to thank everyone. The cooperation of everyone this year was something that has never been equalled. The whole community helped us, and the firemen themselves worked harder than ever before and there were more men out each time there was a call for helpers. The ladies of the auxiliary, wives and members, and some who

Building Plans At Sheely's EUB Church Await Solution To Housing Problem Of Family Of 12

Ninety-five-year-old Mt. Calvary (Sheely's) EUB Church a mile north of Cashtown on the Arendtsville Rd., recently received a gift with a problem attached—and the problem must be solved before the gift of a former schoolhouse can be converted into a Sunday School building and fellowship hall.

The problem is to find new living quarters for Mr. and Mrs. Harper Varner and their 10 children who occupy the gift building now.

When Daniel Sheely, whose grandparents helped found Sheely's EUB Church nearly a century ago, gave the schoolhouse property to the church recently, he told the congregation it will have to provide other quarters for the Varner family before they can take possession of the former school building that stands close to the church.

Fabulous Aga Khan, Moslem Potentate, Dies At Geneva Villa After Heart Attack

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP)—The Aga Khan III, a wealthy potentate to whom 20 million Ismaili Moslems paid spiritual homage, died today. He was 79.

A glamorous figure on the international scene for many years, the Aga Khan succumbed to a sudden weakening of the heart during the night. He had been suffering from heart disease since 1952.

He was known as a sportsman with an ardent interest in race horses, a devotee of luxurious living, and a man with an eye for a beautiful woman. But he was also interested in affairs of state—and once served as president of the League of Nations.

Prince Aly Khan, 46, has generally been regarded as the heir-apparent, but some doubt recently was expressed as to whether he or Prince Sadruddin, 24, the Aga's Harvard-educated younger son would be named. The Aga was said to have been disturbed about Aly's playboy activities. Aly is the former husband of Hollywood actress Rita Hayworth.

Present at the bedside when death came was the Aga Khan's wife—his fourth—and both sons. Sadruddin is planning to marry Nina Dyer, a London model. The wedding had been set for Monday.

The Aga Khan was flown to Geneva from Paris on June 18 to escape a heat spell which contributed to his deteriorating condition. His weight had dropped to 132 pounds—half of that in the days when he was weighed by his subjects against gold, platinum or diamonds on his various anniversaries. The money value went to the Aga Khan's many charities.

SAYS PIKE STAFF WORKED HARD TO FIND USES FOR $30 MILLION

By BOB HOLTON

HARRISBURG (AP)—A New York investment broker testified today at the turnpike trial that two years ago the toll road commission worked "day and night" to find a use for some 30 million dollars in surplus funds.

Walter H. Steel, of Drexel and Co., told the jury that the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission, under Republican control, "was pushing us on these studies for using the surplus funds day and night and Sundays, too."

He said the surplus funds existed in money allocated for construction of the 110-mile northeast extension.

Defense Witness

Steel was called as a defense witness at the trial of nine men charged with conspiring to defraud the commission of 19½ million dollars. The prosecution claims the conpiracy stemmed from a contract with the Manu-Mine Research and Development Co., Reading, to fill mine voids in the northeast extension.

The contract was made while the commission was under Republican control. The contract was cancelled after Democrats took over control of the commission.

Steel said the commission asked his firm to study the possibility of diverting the funds to other toll road projects such as a northwest extension to Erie and a spur across Erie County between New York and Ohio borders.

Stickler Late Today

"By October, 1954 the fact that a surplus would be quite substantial became quite apparent," Steel testified.

Steel testified the surplus funds now are being used to pay off interest on more than 196 million dollars worth of bonds issued for the extension project.

The prosecution held up further questioning on cross-examination of Manu-Mine President Charles W. Stickler Jr. until later in the day. He is among the nine defendants.

Stickler was scheduled to reappear for cross examination this morning. However, Dep. Atty. Gen. said Steel was called first by agreement.

Fur Coat On "Expenses"

Steel said it was not unusual for a road-building agency to set up a 19 million dollar contingency fund on a larger project as was done on the northeast extension job.

Steel explained his firm was one of three which purchased bonds from the commission and then sold them to individual purchasers.

Stickler testified yesterday that he paid $750 toward a mink coat for his wife and charged the expense to Manu-Mine.

Was "Justified"

He told the court he felt the charge was justified because his wife was an officer of the company and "I require and my wife wishes to be presentable to people who come into our place of business."

Stickler is the first of nine defendants to take the stand in his own behalf. He went under direct examination late Monday and was turned over to the prosecution yesterday.

Manu - Mine held an eight-million contract to fill mine voids beneath a six-mile section of the turnpike northeast extension.

The prosecution contends the nine defendants conspired to set up "made work" under the contract at "extorbitant prices."

Stickler emphatically denied any wrongdoing or any participation in an alleged conspiracy while under direct examination Tuesday.

PENNSY ASKING FARE REVIEW

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad today asked the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission to reinstate commuter fare raises effective July 16.

The fare boosts, originally set for June 16, were moved back to the July 16 date under an agreement reached with the railroad, then were suspended for at least six months under a PUC ruling.

The PRR also asked the commission today to set a date for hearings on the need for the fare raises.

Would Affect Road

In its communication with the state agency, the PRR said that any further delay in reinstatement of the fare boosts would prevent a reduction of the railroad's deficit by an estimated $400,000, and would adversely affect the railroad's expansion and improvement plans.

In connection with the suggested public hearings, the railroad said: "The increasing problem of urban and suburban transportation is one that demands mature study and planning by both public and private interests. We would welcome an opportunity to demonstrate that the true public interest of metropolitan cities is to preserve and encourage rail transportation."

DEATHS

Paul M. Marshall

Word has been received in York Springs by friends of the sudden death of Paul M. Marshall, 67, of Evanston, Ill. He died July 3 of coronary thrombosis.

According to his wish, the body has been cremated. Memorial services will be held on Sunday in the Second Presbyterian Church, 901 Hinman Ave., Evanston. Interment of the ashes will be made in a cemetery at Webster Groves. Mo.

Mr. Marshall owned a consulting service for the soft wheat milling industry. Surviving is his widow, the former Reba Emmert, of York Springs.

FAVORS CULTURE OVER ARMAMENTS

TOKYO (AP) — Rep. Carroll D. Kearns (R-Pa) said today, "I am going to devote the rest of my life in public office to get the United States to shift emphasis in its policy from spreading armaments to spreading culture."

"We can do more with our culture than with any A or H-bombs. We can completely outclass Russia with culture," declared Kearns after finishing five performances in Japan as guest conductor of the U.S. Air Force Band.

The 57-year-old lawmaker added that those performances proved to him that "there's no resentment against our Air Force boys as players of violins instead of droppers of H-bombs."

He proposed that America launch a gigantic program of sending its top artists in all fields throughout the world, including Peiping and Moscow, if they can get in.

Kearns said a government Department of Culture should be established to coordinate this, but with proper safeguards against federal control.

St. Louis Woman Says Dog's IQ Is Too High

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — A resident on Oliver Street says the dogs are too smart for the dog catcher.

She says huge packs roam the neighborhood.

"I have called the police and they refer you to the Health Department. When the Health Department truck comes by there is not a dog in sight.

"They tell me to catch the dogs and confine them but how are you going to go out and grab other people's dogs?

"Something is going to have to be done or we will have to move out and leave the city to the dogs," she said.

TWO KIDNAPT NEGROES FREED

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Two young Negro men who reportedly were kidnaped by a group of armed white men returned home early today. One said they were taken into the woods and beaten with rubber hoses.

Harold Cunningham, 19, said he and Henry Silent, 21, were driven to a wooded area and beaten after being questioned about where they were "two Saturdays ago."

"I don't know what they were talking about," Cunningham said. "Henry and I were working together for a paper company two Saturdays ago."

Two girls who dated the men last night said they were stopped by the white men after the Negro couples had driven into a white drive-in ice cream stand, and then left because it was too crowded.

The two girls, Loretta Washington, 17, and Allene Brown, 23, were questioned extensively by police last night. They reported the alleged kidnaping occurred shortly after 9 p.m.

THE DEFENSE RESTS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sentimental Ohio state senators recently voted down a bill to trap and destroy the hoard of pigeons roosting on the capitol building when a cagey senator brought a demure-looking pigeon into the chamber to "face its accusers."

The pigeon cooed and the Senate defeated the bill 19-13.

HARRISBURG (AP) — A total of 48,130 motorboats were licensed in Pennsylvania during 1956, the State Fish Commission reported yesterday. It said this was nearly 6,000 above 1955 and that gross receipts from licenses were $99,595.

MISSIONARY, MISSING FOR 4 DAYS, SOUGHT

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—The four-day disappearance of a 20-year-old California missionary was reported to city and state police today.

A missing person alarm was sent out for William R. Jackson, of Beverly Hills, who has been doing missionary work in nearby South Williamsport for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Jackson is the grandson of the late Preston D. Richards, assistant secretary of state under Presidents Taft and Wilson.

The younger Jackson disappeared Sunday night from the home of another missionary, James Andrus, in South Williamsport.

Jackson had told friends he was going outside to his car. He has not been seen since. The car is not missing.

Jackson has been in the Williamsport region for several months.

HOFFA TRIAL IS MOVING AHEAD

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. Dist. Judge Burnita S. Matthews today ordered the bribery trial of union boss James R. Hoffa to proceed, but granted a mistrial to Hoffa's co-defendant, Miami attorney Hyman I. Fischbach.

The mistrial for Fischbach was granted because of a heart ailment suffered by Fischbach's counsel, Daniel P. Maher.

The government asked for the mistrial order. Both Hoffa and Fischbach objected.

This is the fourth week of the Hoffa-Fischbach trial on charges they bribed a Senate Rackets committee investigator, John Cye Cheasty, to feed Hoffa data from committee files.

Maher's illness brough the case to an abrupt halt yesterday.

GLAMOROUS NEW GRANDMA AIN'T WHAT SHE WAS

By VIVIAN BROWN
The Associated Press

Whatever happened to the artist's conception of grandma, the plump faced, white haired, genial smiling old lady who when not depicted in a rocking chair kitting was pictured pulling a steaming apple pie out of the oven?

Grandmas have changed, and though they are still pulling pies out of the oven, the Silhouette is different. The modern grandma is a chic, if not glamorous, determined, hard-working type, a pillar of strength to the rest of the family.

She is looked upon these days not merely for sage advice, the pearls of wisdom handed down from grandma to ma since time began. She keeps up with the times and may discuss Dr. Spock or architect Frank Lloyd Wright with enthusiasm. She definitely doesn't have time to brood over why son Jim hasn't writen this week or why her daughter-in-law wears low-cut dresses. She has her own life to live.

Sets Example

One of the greatest services that the modern grandma performs is the example she sets for daughter in femininity. She is figure and health conscious, watches her diet and knows the value of the daily use of the scale—one reason for her amazing vitality and longevity.

She is fashion conscious, dresses conservatively, but reserves her right to gay accessories for the right occasions. She wears glasess if she needs them, visits doctor and dentist regularly, takes good care of her feet, having learned respect for comfort. She budgets to keep up her morale for beauty salon, theater, entertaining in the home.

Today's grandma doesn't keep to the house after the middle years, she travels short and long distances and loves it.

Reason For Change

What has brought about the revolution in family life so that grandma has becor e the mature, glamorous individual she is? For one thing, four million women between the ages of 45 and 64 are working out of the home. For another, her children marry younger, requiring the mature and intelligent understanding of mother even after they leave home.

These are not just the Hollywood grandmas—Swansons and Dietrichs. They are the ladies of Main Street over all the land, who are growing younger but wiser every day. Older women who have not yet found the prescription for this happy life should start striving for it now. The important thing seems to be to to keep aware, alert and busy.

Cleaning Customer Has No Car Trouble

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A man came into A. J. Bishop's dry cleaning shop, asked for his suit, then asked Bishop to confirm the color.

"I don't see well," the customer explained. "Will you take your money from this bill and gave me the change?"

Bishop made change, put the suit on a hanger, and placed it it the man's hand.

The man turned, fumbled for the doorknob, and stepped outside to an automobile. He felt for the door handle, opened the door, and gropingly hung up his suit.

Then he got behind the wheel and drove away.

TREE EXPEDITED

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — A Cedar of Lebanon given to Richmond Memorial Hospital by a grateful Lebanese patient almost didn't get here for dedication ceremonies. The U.S. Department of Agriculture held it up for inspection. Rep. J. Vaughan Gary (D-Va.) answered Joseph L. Koury's appeal and got the inspectors to do a fast job.

HOLD UMBRELLA SHOW AT PARK ON WEDNESDAY

A large number of children participated in the umbrella show held at the community playground on Wednesday morning, as a special event in connection with the supervised recreation program. The boys and girls were divided into four different age groups for the judging of the tag award winners.

Ages five and six, the winners were: Jean Keefer, for the most battered umbrella and the most colorful; Jane Keefer, most clever and umbrella with the most holes; William Gall, most comical; Jay Beamer, most novel and smallest decorated handle; Barry Myers, largest and most unusual; Richard Thomas, smallest and the thinnest handle; Sally Morelock, most unique; Janice Clabaugh, most fancy handle; Barbara Greason, thickest post and handle; Stephanie Gall, thinnest post. Ages seven and eight, Jane Clabaugh, most battered umbrella and most holes; Robert Altoff, largest umbrella and thickest post; Sally Myers, most colorful and most fancy handle.

Ages nine and ten, Peggy Myers, most battered and most holes; Linda Clabaugh, most clever; Richard Maitland, largest and smallest umbrellas and thickest post; Marianne Rudisill, most colorful and most fancy handle; Linda Keefer, most unique and thinnest post; Larry Altoff, most unusual; Peggy Altoff, thickest handle. Ages eleven and twelve, Joanne Beamer, most clever and largest; Judy Rimel, smallest and most colorful.

A shoe show will be featured at the playground on Friday morning. The children may enter more than one pair of shoes in the contest, and need not wear them as entrants. Ribbon awards will be presented by the playground supervisors, Mrs. Kay C. Sentz and Richard D. Hhomas. There will be judging for the smallest shoe, largest, most buttons, newest, oldest, most battered, highest heels, cleanest, brightest color, etc.

Outing For Society

Members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Redeemer's United Church of Christ Church and their families enjoyed an outing held on Tuesday evening at the home of the society president, Mrs. Edward B. Geiman, along the Littlestown-Hanover Rd. Prior to the picnic supper, the invocation was offered by the pastor, the Rev. Porter W. Seiwell. There was group singing led by the pastor. During a very brief business session, the society decided to cooperate with the other organizations of the church to have the parking lot in the rear of the church black-topped. The guess package, given by Mrs. Donald C. Arbogast was won by Mrs. Carroll Dodrer. Arrangements for the outdoor meeting were in charge of Mrs. Geiman, Mrs. Arbogast, Mrs. Dodrer and Mrs. Glenn S. Kauffman Jr.

There will be no meeting of the Aid Society during August. The next regular session will take place on Tuesday, September 10, 7:30 p.m., in the church social hall. The hostesses will be Mrs. Glenn Kauffman Jr., chairman, Mrs. Mervin LeGore and Mrs. William Wherley.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 will sponsor a public party on Friday evening, starting at 8 o'clock at the FOE Home, W. King St.

At Camp Nawakwa

The King's Daughters Class and the Young Men's Class of Christ Reformed Church will sponsor a roast beef supper for the public on Saturday, July 20. Serving will begin at 4 p.m. in the church grove auditorium.

A public party will be held in St. Aloysius parish hall on Saturday, starting at 8 p.m. Prizes will be given and refreshments will be available.

Those young people from town spending the week at Camp Nawakwa, near Brysonia, include: Dale Starry Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale W. Starry, attending junior boys' camp; Donna Morelock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe J. Morelock, Marietta Weikert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Weikert; Donna Rabenstine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Rabenstine, and Wanda Morelock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morelock Jr., are all attending the senior girls camp.

WEATHER VARIES IN MANY AREAS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Typical summertime conditions featured the nation's weather today.

A small area of pleasantly cool weather prevailed in the lower Great Lakes region, the upper Ohio Valley, New England and the mid-Atlantic coasta states But it was warm in most other sections, with high humidity in the Gulf states and in most of the Plains states.

There were many showery areas with thunderstorms in some sections. No severe storms were reported during the night.

Rivers and creeks in most of eastern Kansas crept back within their banks today but runoffs from drenching rains which hit the area yesterday threatened fresh flooding in southern areas.

had no connection other than a willingness to help turned out to aid in the kitchen and the soft drinks stand and in the preparation of food. I only wish there was some way to say thank you personally to everyone concerned."

Weishaar said a picnic dinner will be provided by the battle anniversary committee for the auxiliary at a meeting to be held by that group Monday at the former CCC camp off W. Confederate Ave. He added, "It is the least we can do to show our appreciation for the excellent help given by the auxiliary."

Enjoyed By President

Burgess William G. Weaver reported: "The President and Mrs. Eisenhower apparently greatly enjoyed the Memorial program Sunday night. The President's foot was tapping time to the marches and Mrs. Eisenhower sang the words during the playing of the medley from 'My Fair Lady.' We've received many letters of appreciation of the program and we were highly honored by the many dignitaries, including the president and other high officials of the Western Maryland railroad, who attended our program and the reception held for the guests afterwards."

Raymond Menges, chairman of special events for the anniversary, said: "I don't know why I was named chairman because Bill Weaver and General Weikert (Maj. Gen. John Weikert) did all the work.

"I think the fire department should be proud that it has men like our burgess and General Weikert to do the things that they do to make our programs much more successful than they otherwise could be."

General Weikert was one of the special guests at the firemen's meeting. Other guests included the judges for the parade, Ray M. Hoffman, Daniel Shealer, George Naugle, Wilbur Geiselman, Carl Menchey and George Zerfing; the managers of the local utilities; fire police from other fire departments who aided throughout the week of the battle anniversary program in handling traffic and parking, and Dr. J. Walter Coleman, superintendent of the Gettysburg National Park.

Delegates Selected

Fire Chief Donald McSherry reported the borough council has done a tremendous amount of work and study in connection with the plans to build a new fire house and community building and we have asked the council to have a representative at the August meeting of the fire department to explain to all of us what is planned and what the studies show."

Fire Department President Harold W. Culp appointed Glenn Weishaar, Richard M. Cole, Donald McSherry, Robert Hartman and S. Charles Smith to meet with the Property committee of council, at the Poperty committee's request, to outline the firemen's ideas in connection with a new fire house.

The following delegates and alternates were elected to represent the department at the county firemen's convention at McSherrystown August 10: Delegates, Walter Johnson, Henry Shultz, G. Henry Roth, Emory Strausbaugh, Thomas Cole, Robert Heyser, Robert Hartman, Donald McSherry, Donald Staub and Frank Linn.

Alternates, Howard Small, Herbert Bowling, Raymond Menges, Jodn Leedy, C. Lester Oyler, Joseph Sanders, Jay Woodward, Robert Redding, Richard Finkboner and Harold Culp.

Named as the Refreshment committee for the August meeting were Clarence Cluck, Richard C. Cole, Thomas Cole, T. J. Collingsworth, Martin Crabill and Harold Culp.

Raymond Menges announced as among those who aided at the memorial service June 30 as ushers were Shirley Sterner, Sandra Redding, Evelyn Breighner, Anne Eckert, Elaine Rebert, Joan Lank, Shirley Sanders, Carolyn Ketterman, Joyce Gulden, Philip Scott and Hammond Geyer.

MOSS CHARGES FOUL TACTICS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Rep. Moss (D-Calif) told newspaper editors today it is time to shout "foul" because "you have been indicted without evidence" by secrecy-minded government officials.

Moss, chairman of the House Government Information subcommittee, referred to a Pentagon study group and to the security commission headed by Loyd Wright in a speech prepared for the American Society of Newspapers Editors' convention.

Moss said the two government groups favored strong legislation applicable to newsmen printing "leaked" information harmful to national security. But he said his subcommittee found no proof of allegations that such practices occurred.

BOY ON ROOF SHOT IN HEAD

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 14-year-old boy hunting for some lost balls after a street game was shot through the head last night while climbing over a south Philadelphia rooftop.

The victim is George Brambilla. He was taken in serious condition to Methodist Hospital.

Harry N. Augustine Jr., 62, was arrested several hours after the shooting on a charge of aggravated assault and battery by firearm. Police said Augustine told them he fired three shots into the air in the belief there was prowlers on the roof of his row home on Colorado St. near Oregon Ave.

One bullet entered the Brambilla boy's head behind the right ear and came out the top.

The Brambilla boy and a companion, Frank Forgione, also 14, went to the rooftops of the row of homes looking for rubber ball halves used in a street game known as stick ball.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader today approved appropriations totaling more than 9¾ million dollars for the University of Pittsburgh for the 1957-59 biennium.

The total of three separate bills signed into law was about $214,000 less than the governor had requested in his budget.

A companion bill appropriated $50,000 to continue the Jonas E. Salk Professorship of Preventive Medicine in the University's Medical School.

and who recently helped other members of the three-church charge build a parsonage for their pastor, the Rev. Roger Burtner, are setting out to seek a quick solution to the problem so they can get on with their building program.

They hope to convert the ex-schoolhouse into Sunday School rooms and a hall for fellowship meetings. When that is done, they'll start renovating that church built in 1862 and still equipped with furnishings provided 95 years ago. They can't go ahead with the church until the other building is done so that church and Sunday School services can be carried on there while the church is being renovated.

The church and former schoolhouse stand side by side on the west side of the road a half mile north of the new Lincoln Highway.

Prime movers in the whole undertaking are the eight young couples who make up the recently-formed Mt. Calvary Young Adult Class. They organized a month ago, met for the third time this week and listed the search for new quarters for the Varners as their first project.

Services are held weekly at Mt. Calvary with an attendance of 50 to 80 each Sunday. Church rolls, now being revised, show 117 names. Mt. Carmel, near Orrtanna, and Mt. Hope, north of Fairfield, are the other churches in the parish served by the Rev. Mr. Burtner.

When the building program gets underway, the chances are many of the church members will pitch in with volunteer labor and with donations of materials as they did in 1952 and 1953 when a modern parsonage was erected for the pastor and his wife along the Mt. Carmel Rd., west of Orrtanna.

The Rev. Mr. Burtner has been pastor there for six years.

Charles Tressler, Gettysburg R. 1, is president of the Young Adult Class.

Joins Marines

Donald Lee Bricker, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fissel, of W. Hanover St., Biglerville, has enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps for three years. A June graduate of Biglerville High School, he was a member of the varsity wrestling team for three years. He is presently undergoing basic training at Marine Corps depot, Parris Island, S.C.

FAITHFUL TO HER OWN

CLARKSDALE, Miss. (AP) — When fire broke out in the garage of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Haaga Jr. of Clarksdale, their beautiful collie dog could easily have escaped.

But her nine puppies, only four weeks old and still relatively helpless, were also in the garage. The mother dog, unwilling to desert the puppies, perished with them in the flames.

ROUTE 11 ASSN. ROAD CHANGES SEEM UNLIKELY

HARRISBURG (AP) — The chief engineer of the State Highways Department said today it was improbable that the department's recommendations for relocation of U.S. 11 could be changed.

"Nothing is impossible although it is improbable," Robert A. Farley replied in answer to a uestion whether the department could revise its recommendations to federal authorities.

Farley made the comment prior to a meeting with a delegation from the Bloomsburg area representing the Original Route 11 Assn. The group opposes department recommendations to rebuild the north-south highway on the eastern side of the Susuehanna River between Harrisburg and Scranton.

Northern Part Approved

Final approval of a general location for the new limited access route has already been granted by the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads for the northern part of the road between Ashland and Scranton. The bureau and the Highways Department are still considering plans for the southern 40 miles from Harrisburg to near Ashland. The northern part is east of the river, as would be the southern section under proposals being considered.

"Some of these people are disturbed because they think we will roll up (Old) Route 11 and pack it away," Farley said. "But of course, that is all wrong. The highway will remain in place and will be maintained as part of the federal primary system."

At present U.S. 11 runs on the west side of the river from Harrisburg to Northumberland and continues along the north bank from Northumberland eastward to Scranton.

Dislike Relocation

The Original Route 11 Assn., composed of representatives of some 12 counties along the present route, contends relocation of the road to the eastern side of the river "is not in accordance with good engineering practice nor of the greatest benefit to the community."

The group is headed by Paul R. Eyerly Jr., managing editor of the Bloomsburg Press. Members maintain another 50 million dollars would eventually have to be spent to bypass communities along the present road if an eastern route were finally adopted.

They also say that a new road west of the river would not pass over mined out areas which an eastern road would encounter.

The department takes into consideration the expected traffic, costs, and the overall value to the entire federal system in forming its recommendations for an interstate route.

The new U.S. 11 would be the only interstate route to cross Pennsylvania from its northern border to the southern border. It will extend from near Waynesboro in the south to near Hallstead in the north. The general location was approved about 10 years ago.

Eight carloads containing 68 thoroughbreds checked in at Hialeah in one day in November to prepare for the winter meeting.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY YEARS AGO

1937's Tourist Traffic, With 56,000 More Than Last Year, May Reach 1929 Peak: Gettysburg battlefield visitors drring the first six months of this year have been more numerous by more than 56,000 persons than the number who toured the field during the same period in 1936, estimates based on actual counts reveal.

Making use of figures compiled by C. L. Nett, superintendent at the National cemetery, tourist visitors to the battlefield here up to the first day of July are found to number nearly 250,000 or about 39 per cent more than the estimated number for the same period last year.

Basing his estimate on tabulations taken at various hours of the day, Mr. Nett estimated that more than 11,000 persons visited the cemetery Sunday, July 4th.

Today's Talk

PATIENCE

Most of us become impatient time and again, but when we do we lose to a greater or less degree much of the God-given power that is bequeathed to us all. Patience should be one of our choicest possessions.

There is an old saying that states all things come to him who waits, but someone has improved upon the statement by saying that all things come to him who hustles 'as he waits! Study the life of any great person and you will read the story of one who was never too much in a hurry, but who kept improving himself as he worked, dreamed and planned.

Patience is a wonderful virtue. John Dryden said to possess our souls with it. Our modern life is one of impatience and all speed ahead. Life's journey was meant to be pleasant, and even joyous. Nothing is gained by rushing to get something finished before its plans are rightly set. People of power have learned to be patient and to abide their time.

Impatience is destructive. It tears to the heart of a person. It roughs its way through this entire bodily structure, leaving bad news all the way. There is nothing so sentitive as the human body. Patience gives it health and stimulative ideas and thoughts. Take time. Be patient, even with those who are not in sympathy with you. It is sad to see a person impatient with a child. By being patient with it an entire life may be influenced.

Patience has a multitude of meanings and inspiring qualities—gentleness, consideration for the feelings of others, sympathy, and love. You have to love people to have patience with them. Like a mother does.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Unwritten Language"

AWAIT SOCIAL SECURITY VOTE FROM TEACHERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A state official predicted today that social security would become part of the pension systems of state employes and school teachers by Sept. 1.

Paul C. Moomaw, executive director of the Social Security Bureau, said he anticipated overwhelming approval of the integration arrangement in secret balloting Aug. 26-27.

"Since those who will vote next month already have indicated they favor going into the social security system there shouldn't be any doubt that the proposition will be approved," he told a newsman.

May Referendum

Final results are still being tabulated on the May referendum on the question of how many of 62,000 state employes and 86,000 teachers and other school workers would like to have social security coverage.

Moomaw said about 85 per cent of the state workers have voted for the plan. Among teachers, the favorable vote is running about 70 per cent.

Only those who voted yes in May will be eligible to vote in August. Those who voted no will be allowed to remain outside the social security system although they can change their minds and join the plan before Aug. 26-27.

Voting Procedure

In the August balloting, said Moomaw, a majority of those eligible to vote—not just a majority of those voting—must favor social security to put the system into effect under federal law.

Moomaw said hundreds of teachers were expected to retire shortly after the plan goes into effect because of a provision for paying social security contributions retroactively to Jan. 1, 1956.

Man Is Killed In Bus And Car Crash

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—One man was killed and five persons injured last night in the crash of an automobile and a bus in nearby Palmer Twp.

Killed was Charles F. Moyer Jr., of Bethlehem. Taken to Easton Hospital were these bus passengers:

Mrs. Jennie Halacek, 49, New York City; Mrs. Ida Groh, 52, Pottsville, Pa.; Miss Ruth Evans, 51, Mount Carmel, Pa.; Louis Vegher, 45, Coalgate, Okla., and Vegher's wife, Inez, 44.

Police said the bus driver, William Taylor, of Easton, told them he was unable to avoid the collision as Moyer's car went through a traffic signal.

The Edwards Lakes-to-Sea bus was en route from Williamsport, Pa., to New York at the time of the crash.

Four other bus passengers were unhurt.

WERNERSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania County prosecutors have urged Gov. Leader to approve more stringent penalties for narcotics selling and to approve wiretapping under court control.

The District Attorneys Assn. of Pennsylvania approved resolutions endorsing these two proposals at the closing session of its 23rd annual convention yesterday.

Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hahn celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday afternoon at an open house at their residence, near Taneytown where they have been engaged in farming for 42 years.

Mr. Hahn is the son of Abraham and Amanda Hahn and his wife is the daughter of Worthington and Sarah Fringer. They are the parents of two sons, Walter and Elmer Hahn. They have one granddaughter and three grandsons.

Approximately 224 friends and relatives attended the open house and the Hahns received many useful gifts. Guests were from Altoona, Sykesville, Timonium, York, Baltimore, Washington, Hanover and Annapolis.

LEADER BACKS IKE'S BUDGET

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader told the state's Veterans of Foreign Wars today that only "the nuclear blunderbuss" can discourage the Soviet Union from beginning another war.

In a speech prepared for the annual encampment of the Pennsylvania Department of the VFW, the governor called on veterans to support President Eisenhower's defense budget.

He said it was the duty of the veterans to tell "every economy-minded congressman who wants to play Russian roulette with America's safety" that "if we aren't prepared the next time, we face annihilation."

Preserve Muscle

"I quite agree with those who would cut the fat out of the national defense budget," Leader said. "But I violently disagree with those who would cut the muscle out of our national defense."

"The only reason we're not in a shooting war is that we have a slight lead in the nuclear arms race," he continued. "We must not fall behind. For the day that we do, the nation is in grave danger.

"Despite the Soviet double-talk about disarmament despite the shuffle and reshuffle of Soviet leadership, we are still contending with a bear in bear's clothing, and only the nuclear blunderbuss will discourage him from attack."

SIX KILLED IN ALASKA CRASH

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Six persons were killed at King Salmon Airport on Bristol Bay yesterday when a twin-engined Lockheed Electra crashed and burned on takeoff.

Details of the crash were lacking.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration office here identified the victims as:

V. Redfield Vose, about 60, owner of the plane and prominent New York businessman with real estate and cattle interests in the Virgin Islands;

Mrs. H. B. Friele, about 55, Bellevue, Wash., wife of a widely known Pacific Northwest cannery operator and A & P representative;

Mrs. Harold B. Friele, whose husband is assistant superintendent of the Nakeen, Alaska, cannery;

Polly Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Evans of Augusta, Ga;

Edward Coligny, the pilot, Brooklyn, N. Y.; and

Ralph Huthes, copilot, Brooklyn.

1941 Executioner Is Given 20 Years

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China has sentenced the 1941 executioner of Mao Tze-tung's brother to 20 years in prison, Communist reports received here today said.

The Communist government chairman's brother, Mao Tze-ming, was reported among hundreds killed in a massacre in Sinkiang province. Details of what happened have long been obscure. Osman Batur, a famed anti-Communist guerrilla, and four former provincial officials were executed in 1951 for participating in the slayings.

The Communist New China News Agency said Lu Ping-lin confessed acting as executioner under orders from the officials and garroting Mao Tze-ming and two other persons. He was sentenced June 28 in Lanchow.

The New China agency said Lu had become an usher in a movie theater but he finally was discovered "during a campaign for the suppression of counterrevolutionaries."

Tomkins To Fly To Paris In Spy Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—Asst. U. S. Atty. Gen. William F. Tompkins said last night he will fly to Paris next week to discuss the case of George and Jane Zlatovski, who seek asylum in France from a U.S. accusation of spying for the Kremlin.

Tomplins said he hopes to have personal discussions with "appropiate French authorities" that may open the way to extradition of the couple.

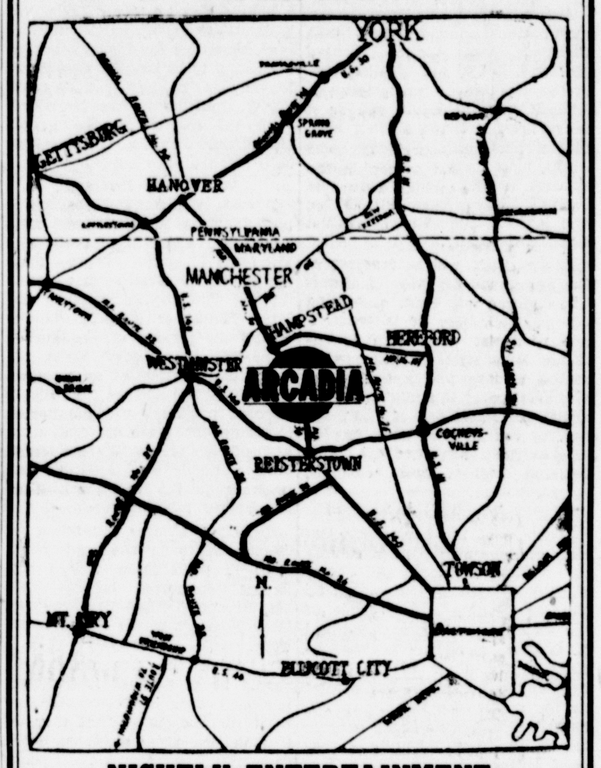

Zlatovski, Russian-born former lieutenant in U. S. Army Intelligence, claimed he and his wife had been given asylum. In Paris today official sources said there is no chance France wil grant asylum to the Zlatovskis.

PITTSBURGH'S PURKEY SCALPS BRAVES 5 TO 2

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Young Bob Purkey, Pittsburgh's chubby-faced right-hander, looks as though he may be following in the footsteps of teammate Bob Friend, the Pirate ace who gave the pennant contenders all sorts of troubles two years ago while leading the National League in earned run averages.

Friend, a bit battered these days, was the guy who almost owned Brooklyn's champs in '55. He was 14-9 that season for the last-place Bucs, with a 9-5 mark against the first division, while finishing with a 2.84 ERA.

At the moment, Purkey is 9-7 and leads the league with a 2.70 ERA, gaining his second victory over Milwaukee 5-2 last night. It was the only game scheduled in either league.

Fifth Loss For Buhl

Purkey stopped the Braves with a six-hitter, striking out seven and walking two. A single by Red Schoendienst came ahead of Ed Mathews' 18th home run in the first inning, but Purkey then kept the Braves in check while the Pirates battled back against Bob Buhl. Bob Skinner hit a two-run homer and Gene Baker bagged it with a three-run single.

Purkey, a Pittsburgh kid who spent most of last season in the minors after wrenching a knee in spring training, has picked up seven of his 1957 victories against the NL's five-team first division. He's beaten Brooklyn three times, Cincinnati twice. Only St. Louis has given him t r o u b l e, beating him twice in two decisions.

The Pirates, handed Buhl his fifth defeat in 14 decision when a walk, Dick Groat's single and an error by Frank Torre loaded the bases with two out in the sixth. With the runners on the move, Baker then lined a 3- pitch through short to junk a -2 tie.

The Varsity Club recorded its first victory in the Rec Slow Pitch League Wednesday evening by jolting the Luther Leaguers into third place and lifted the winners into a tie for fourth place.

Five runs in the first inning on four singles and two doubles led the Varsity Club to victory. They added four more in the second inning on a pair of errors and five singles.

A single, error and two walks gave the Luther Leaguers a run in the first inning, another came in the second on two singles, and the final in the third on two errors, a pair of safeties and a walk.

PURKEY'S MARK IS TOPS IN NL

After watching Purkey beat the second-place Milwaukee Braves 5- last night on a six-hitter, Bragan declared:

"You know, Bob was a nibbler at one time — always trying for the corner of the plate. Now, he's throwing that strike ball with better control and he gets ahead of most of the batters. He doesn't overpower them. He has a tricky knuckleball and some other fine pitches. That boy has a real future."

Purkey's record speaks for itself. He has an earned run average of 2.70, tops in the National League. In 100⅓ innings he's given up only 2 walks and has had 33 strikeouts.

He's pitched five complete games in 12 starts and has hurled one shutout, that against the Giants. Two of his nine victories have come in relief and he's specialized in beating the pennant contenders.

Margo Morton, 16, Wins At Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP) — Defending champion Margo Morton of Indiana shot a final round 86 yesterday to win the 3rd annual Pennsylvania Junior Girls' Golf Championship with a 54-hole score of 258.

The 16-year-old titleholder finished one shot ahead of the first day leader, Jackie Leary of Paoli. Miss Leary posted a final round of 87 for a 259 total.

Miss Morton covered the first nine in 44 and the back nine in 42. Miss Leary's card was 44-43.

Admits He Lied At PAC Hearing

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A former fight manager has admitted he lied in hearings before the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, which is considering the 1957 license application by promoter Herman Taylor.

Don Rettman of Trenton, N. J., took the stand yesterday for cross-examination by attorney Morton Whitkin, representing Taylor, as the commission resumed its hearings on the applicatin.

Rettman, who has alleged that Taylor took middleweight George Johnson from him, admitted he lied when he testified that he never talked to Athletic Commissioner Alfred M. Klein and Deputy Attorney General Joseph C. Mansfield about material given a national sports magazine for an article on boxing in Pennsylvania.

In the top pitching duel of the season, little Rick Jones of the Glenn L. Bream Yankees, blanked the Lions and Bobby Bigham 1-0 in a Little League contest Wednesday evening on the recreation diamond.

Jones faced 20 batters, struck out nine men and allowed only one walk and one hit in registering his fourth win against three setbacks. Bigham, who has had many close decisions against him this season, turned in his best pitching performance of perfect control. Bigham struck out out five batters, did not allow a walk and pitcehd to only 17 men. He yielded two hits.

The Breammen scored the only run of the game in the fourth inning when, with two out, Steve Olson reached second on an infield error. Johnny Chrismer then lashed out a single to center driving in Olson with the run. The Lions had men as far as second in the second and fourth frames but were unable to drive them across.

Eastern League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Springfield fans got more than their money's worth of Eastern League baseball last night.

In the 14th inning, after nearly four hours of play, the Schenectady Blue Jays broke a six-all deadlock with a five-hit flurry, downing the Giants, 10-6.

The victory assured the Jays that they would be hosts for the league's July 22 all-star game.

In other games, Syracuse right-hander George Aitken led the Chiefs to a 7-3 triumph over their Albany hosts, while Reading's Len Farrell blasted a two-run homer that gave the home club a 6-4 victory over Binghamton.

Denied Damages In Golf Accident

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A federal court has ruled that a golfer who lost his right eye when he was hit by a ball on the course was guilty of contributory negligence.

William V. Boynton, Jr., Milford, Conn., a student at the University of Pennsylvania, has sued Gordon Ryan of Paoli, Pa., for $50,000 after his right eye was removed as a result of the accident.

Judge Allan K. Grim denied Boynton damages. He ruled Boynton was guilty of negligence when he signalled Ryan to play through, then stepped to the left of the fairway where he was hit. The accident happened May 4, 1955.

WILLIE VAUGHN BEATS MEXICAN WITH TKO IN 7TH

CHICAGO (AP) — A new hard-punching Willie Vaughn looked around for bouts with top middleweight contenders today after his TKO victory over rugged Mexican middleweight Chebo Hernandez.

Vaughn, who has made a bigger mark as a boxer than a slugger, unleashed a blistering two-fisted assaut to batter Hernandez into helplessness in 2:19 of the seventh round of their scheduled 10-round nationally televised bout last night.

Shaken In Fifth

Vaughn went in for the kill in the sixth and seventh rounds after shaking off jolting punches to the head and midsection that had him hanging on in the fifth.

His victory avenged a second-round knockout he suffered in a scrap with Hernandez in Jaurez, Mexico, in 1954. Earlier, the pair fought two 10-round draws.

Vaughn, who was ranked 10th best among the middleweights until he lost a close decision to Bobby Boyd in May, said he expects to be ranked with the elite middleweights again as he works up the ladder toward an eventual title match.

Hernandez weighed 159 to 161½ for Vaughn.

TWENTY-GAME WINNERS MAY BE SHORT LIST

NEW YORK (AP)—There may be more 20-game losers than 20-game winners among major league pitchers this season.

Only seven pitchers had 10 or more victories as the campaign entered its second half today. They are Billy Pierce of the Chicago White Sox (12-6), Early Wynn of Cleveland (11-10), Jim Bunning of Detroit (10-2) in the American League and Larry Jackson of St. Louis (10-4), Jack Sanford of Philadelphia (10-2), and Ruben Gomez of the New York Giants (10-7) in the National.

Only Pierce and Wynn from among this group were 20-game winners in 1956. Seven others in last year's select category are unlikely to make the grade.

'56 Stars Slipping

Don Newcombe of Brooklyn, a 27-game winner in '56, and Warren Spahn of Milwaukee have won only eight. Johnny Antonelli of the Giants has seven, Bob Lemon of Cleveland five, Frank Lary of Detroit four and Detroit's Billy Hoeft one. Herb Score of Cleveland, another 20-game victor, had a 2-1 record before he was sidelined with an eye injury.

Frank Lary, the Tigers' top pitcher a year ago, is one of five with at least 10 defeats. He has lost 11. Also with this unenviable distinction are Chuck Stobbs of Washington (2-12), Camillo Pascual, also of the Senators (5-10), Ronnie Kline of Pittsburgh (2-11) and Robin Roberts, Philadelphia (6-11).

The majors produced one 20-game loser last year — Art Ditmar of Kansas City, who dropped 22. Ditmar is now 5-1 with the Yankees.

TRIO LEADS WAY AT CEDARBROOK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Howard Everitt of Atlantic City, N.J.; William Hyndman 3d of suburban Huntingdon Valley and John Dyniewski of suburban Whitemarsh led the way into today's quarterfinal round of the Philadelphia Amateur Golf Championship at the Cedarbrook Country Club.

Everitt, the defending champion was matched against James Ginsberg, 23-year-old former Penn State star from Ashbourne. Hyndman, a U.S. Walker Cup team player, was paired against John Hendrickson of Philadelphia. Dyniewski, the Pennsylvania amateur champion, was matched against Dick Stephens of the Aronomink Club. The other quarterfinal match had Sam Maniaci of the host club meeting Bob Morris of Riverton, N.J.

All eight quarterfinalists won twice yesterday to advance to today's round.

Dyniewski has the closest call, going to the 22nd hole before defeating former Yale University golf captain Edin W. (Ned) Vare in the second round.

HARTACK HURT IN SPECTACULAR SPILL ON TRACK

CHICAGO (AP)—A fracture in the "wing" of a vertebra was disclosed today in new X-rays of jockey Bill Hartack's spine but cdotors said the injury was considerably less serious than at first believed.

The nation's leading rider was thrown in a spectacular spill yesterday at Arlington Park.

Dr. Paul Tobin, one of the attending physicians at St. Joseph's Hospital in nearby Elgin, said:

"After studying new spot pictures of the vertebra, it is my opinion that the injury is not real serious. Oen of the wings of the vertebra in the small of the back is fractured. He will need no cast.

"It will depend a lot on how Hartack feels himself when he will resume racing. If he has a lot of muscle spasm, which is common in these cases, and paid he won't want to race for awhile. But he is a gritty fellow and it will be up to him.

"I would say that he may be ready to work again in a week or 10 days."

Hartack himself was in cheerful spirits and said he hoped he will be able to ride the Kentucky Derby winner Iron Liege Saturday in the $100,000 added Arlington Classic if X-rays show no broken bones. However, he added he probably was being "too hopeful" in thinking about getting into the classic.

He has been under sedation in St. Joseph's Hospital at nearby Elgin since the riding accident.

The leading rider of 1955 and 1956 and currently out in front by a wide margin was thrown heavily to the ground yesterday in the first race at Arlington Park.

Complete Somersault

His mount, Reverie Knoll Farms juvenile colt Smoke-Me-Now, turned a complete somersault after running up the heels of the tiring Spy Boss.

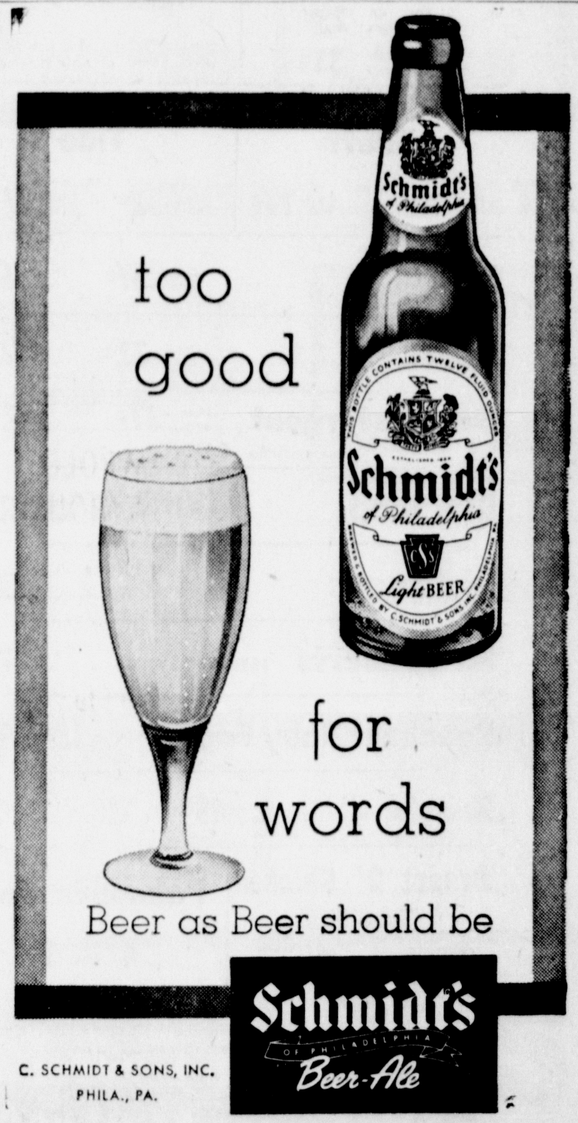

Hartack was thrown to the outside near the stretch turn and missed being struck by several horses. His mount scrambled to his feet uninjured and finished the race riderless.

Deadline For Uniform Real Estate Assessment Systems Is Postponed

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader yesterday vetoed legislation which would have postponed for a year the deadline for most counties in Pennsylvania to set up uniform real estate assessment systems.

Next Jan. 1 remains the deadline under the governor's action.

The governor signed legislation that will require all blasting operations to be regulated by the Department of Labor and Industry.

The only exceptions ar the use of explosives in agricultural or coal mining activities.

This will be the first time a blaster will be reuired to take out a state license.

Other Laws Signed

Other new laws signed by the governor will:

Change the effective date of a withdrawal from a joint municipal authority from the time the withdrawal is recorded by the county recorder of deeds to the time the secretary of the commonwealth issues a withdrawal certificate.

Forbid the sale of air rifles to persons under 18 beginning Sept. 1.

Require state policemen to retire at 60 except those who are presently on the force who have less than 20 years service.

Require that members of municipal authorities be appointed on a staggered basis for terms of five years.

Permit investment of trusts in obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Assn. and Pennsylvania State University.

Population Tabulations

Allow use of special population tabulations taken by the U.S. Census Bureau to determine local liquor license quotas.

Make possible establishment of migratory bird reservations in Pennsylvania at federal expense.

Give the University of Pittsburgh expanded rights for the use of Logan Armory land sold by the state to the university in 1949.

Permit second class townships to appropriate money to nonprofit groups that provide community nursing services.

Reduce from eight to three the number of policemen which a municipality must employ before establishing a police pension fund.

Increase the salaries of legislative officials, including Senate secretary and House chief clerk from $8,250 to $10,500; Senate librarian from $7,150 to $10,000; House parliamentarian from $8,000 to $10,000 and director of the Legislative Reference Bureau from $11,000 to $12,000.

Raise Coroner's Fee

Provide that publication of resolutions, rules and regulations by the Allegheny County commissioners shall follow the same procedure as that of ordinances.

Increase coroners' fees in fifth class counties.

In another veto, the governor rejected a plan which would give additional state aid for school construction to school districts where the state owns 60 per cent or more of the land.

Other bills vetoed by the governor would have:

Increased from 10 cents an acre to 16 cents the fixed charge in lieu of taxes paid by the State Game Commission to municipalities for game lands.

Allowed public school teachers to seek credits in the state retirement system for time served in private schools.

Building Permit Fees

Nullified local laws imposing more than a $75 building permit fee for single family dwellings and prohibited an increase of more than 5 per cent a year.

Appropriated $2,000 to send a team from the Pennsylvania Rifle and Pistol Assn. to a rifle match at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Appropriated $2,500 to acquire Wolf Academy in Northampton County, where Gov. George Wolf was educated, as a state historical site.

Require that all electrical material sold in Pennsylvania be approved by Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc.

Authorized a 25-cent admission fee at Presque Isle State Park near Erie. The fee would have been the first of its kind at a state park.

Marine Corps School Deadline Approaches

M/Sgt. V. A. Pickard Jr., noncommissioned officer in charge of York recruiting sub-station, today reminded qualified applicants that less than two months remain before the deadline for applications for the 20th Officer Candidate Course.

Open to qualified college graduates who will be less than 27 on July 1, 1957, the 10-weeks course begins October 7 at Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va.

Selected applicants undergo training in basic officer training and, following successful completion of the course, are commissioned a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps Reserve. In addition to regular pay, Officer Candidates receive quarters, meals, uniforms, medical and dental care and transportation to Quantico at government's expense.

Sgt. Pickard urged all interested applicants to contact the Marine Corps Recruiting Station in York for further information.

ARMY ORDERS DEPORTATION OF MURDERESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army today ordered the release and deportation of a British mother serving a life sentence for the murder of three of her children while stationed abroad with her American soldier husband.

She is Mrs. Eunice M. Brillhart of Rochdale, England. Her husband, Sgt. Robert W. Brillhart, now is serving with the Army at Sandia Base in New Mexico.

The Army announced that the remaining portion of her life sentence, which she is serving at the Federal Reformatory for Women at Alderson, W. Va., will be remitted so that she can be released on July 22 and turned over to the Immigration Service for deportation to Great Britain.

Killed Her Children

The Army reviewed the case following a Supreme Court decision on June 10 which forbade military courts from trying civilians for capital crimes committed abroad.

The official announcement of Mrs. Brillhart's release today made no reference to the court ruling, saying only that the decision to remit the remainder of her life sentence "was reached after consideration of all matters in extenuation and mitigation."

The Army said also that she will be deported because she was permitted to enter this country "only for the purpose of serving her sentence."

An Army court-martial found Mrs. Brillhart guilty of the murder of her three children "by dropping them on their heads" over a 13-month period between November 1952 through December 1953. At that time the Brillharts were living in Asmara, Eritrea, now a part of Ethiopia.

Award Contracts For Construction

WASHINGTON (AP)—General Services Administration said today it has awarded construction contracts after competitive bids for improvements to federal installations which include:

Lebanon, Pa. Federal Civil Defense Administration Warehouse, Crosby Contracting Co., Inc., of Yonkers, N.Y., $28,000, renovation and alterations.

Philadelphia, 128 N. Broad St., office building, Crosby Contracting Co., Inc., Yonkers, $234,000, new plumbing fixtures and piping.

Pittsburgh, new Post Office and Courthouse, Gholson, Byars & Holmes Construction Co., Albuquerque, N. M., $393,649, fluorescent lighting and painting.

MOCK DISASTER FOR U.S. FRIDAY

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Enemy" bombers will dump imaginary nuclear destruction on scores of American cities tomorrow in a grim game of "let's pretend."

The mock catastrophe will signal the opening of Operation Alert 1957, the fourth nationwide civil defense training exercise.

The idea is to prepare citizens and government officials alike for conditions of nuclear war.

Sometime during the seven-day period, a fleet of 14 helicopters will whisk President Eisenhower and his staff to an emergency White House, location undisclosed. Eisenhower is expected to spend only one day of less inspecting his hideaway and its operation, then return to Washington.

The cities to be blasted with the mock hydrogen and atomic bombs will not be informed of their fate until just before the exercise.

Malenkov, Liquidation Expert, May Escape Death This Time

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

For more than 20 years Georgi Maxmilianovich Malenkov was an expert at liquidation.

Now in the rapid swirl of Kremlin events, he apparently has escaped with his life after becoming the most likely candidate to be liquidated of the deposed "anti-party" group. He is being hustled out of Moscow to run a hydro-electric plant in East Kazakhstan —1,800 miles away.

In the crazy quilt of Soviet politics, Malenkov has been both protege and enemy of his partners in disgrace, Lazar Kaganovich and V. M. Molotov. He has been allied with Nikita Khrushchev, and now Khrushchev has pulled the rug out from under him.

Hated By Allies

Molotov and Kaganovich, now in the same leaky boat with Malenkov, have reason to hate him. Years ago Malenkov was responsible for bouncing Molotov's wife and Kaganovich's brother out of big and comfortable jobs.

But Khrushchev says all three men are allies in intrigue.

Malenkov was Stalin's "apparatchik"—a man who lived and breathed the politics of the party apparatus.

Courtly Or Ruthless

This 5-foot-7, 250-pound mass of Russian paradox could be courtly in presenting bouquets to a lady, or ruthless enough to purge his own grandmother if it happened to be necessary.

As Stalin's man Friday he kept a steel grip on the party organization, populating it with "Malenkovtsy"—Malenkov men. He aced Lavrenty Beria's secret police with his party spies.

Malenkov made a career of being a mystery man. Little is known of his private life. He married a Central Committee typist who bore him a son, and later a party worker.

Joined Army At 17

Malenkov's frequent sneers at those who boasted proletarian origins indicated he came from middle-class background. Likely his father was a railway official deported by the Czar to Orenburg (now Chkalov) in the Urals. There Georgi was born Jan. 8, 1902.

At 17, two years after the Bolshevik Revolution, Malenkov joined the Red army. In 1920 he went to Moscow to study and joined the Communist party. A prodigious organizer, he whipped up student demonstrations for Stalin and against Trotsky in the first power struggle after Lenin died.

Kaganovich called him to Stalin's attention.

Card-Index Brain

With his card-index brain, Malenkov was a master of intrigue. He worked his way into the inner councils. He was Stalin's catalogue for the purges of the 1930s. As Communists died before firing squads or moved into exile, Malenkov peopled key positions with those who could do him the most good. In 1939 Beria liquidated the purgers and Malenkov joined him in the alliance.

Malenkov, then only 37, was a member of the Orgburo, which controlled key party network appointments. By 1941 he was an alternate in the ruling Politburo and obviously a Stalin favorite. He was one of five (with Stalin, Molotov, Beria and Marshal Klementi Voroshilov) on the top directorate for World War II.

In charge of reconstruction after the war, Malenkov did the impossible. As a reward he climbed to full Politburo membership along with Beria, in 1946.

One Of Three In '53

By October 1952 and the 19th party Congress, it was clear Malenkov would succeed Stalin as premier. Others, including Khrushchev, hitched their wagons to his star.

When Stalin died in 1953 Beria and Khrushchev joined Malenkov in power. But Beria apparently wanted it all. Unluckily for him, his MVD ranks were full of "Malenkovtsy." Boxed in by a combination of party leaders and army generals, Beria was shot as an "imperialist spy."

Khrushchev already was moving against Malenkov. First he had forced him to give up one of his jobs—head of the party secretariat. That job meant power. Eventually Khrushchev obliged Malenkov to step down as premier with a confession of failure. He became minister of electric power stations.

ABBOTTSTOWN — A surprise birthday party was held recently at home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Rodgers in honor of Mr. Rodgers. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Curvin Smith, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Elaine Smith, Leon Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shaberly, LeRoy Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livelsberger and children, Yvonne, Beverly, Michael, Mary Sue, and Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. William Morton and son, Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and son, Philip, Mrs. Bertha Messinger, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Rodgers and sons, Bradley and Terry.

Miss Jill Polhemus is spending three week at Camp Rodgers, near Ephrata.

No church service will be held Sunday at St. John's Lutheran Church due to the Rev. Lester Karschner being on vacation. Sunday School will be at 9:15 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Emig and children, Barbara and Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Berle Baker and children, Shirley and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sanders and children, Teddy and Sunny Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breighner and children, Gloria, Joanne, Judy, and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Becker and son, Randy, spent several days at a hunting camp in Potter County last week.

Mrs. Grace Nagle fell Tuesday afternoon and suffered a fracture of the left arm. Mrs. Nagle will celebrate her 88th birthday on July 17.

Miss Frances Haines arrived Tuesday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Helen Haines, after spending two years in Italy. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grove Haines, will arrive home the end of the month. Mr. Haines has been teaching in Italy for several years.

In Latin America, a mulatto is a half-breed, a cross between negro and white.

An ordination and farewell service will be conducted on Sunday at the Bethel Mennonite Church, Biglerville Rd. for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shenk, missionary appointees to Japan.

At 2:20 p.m. Mr. Shenk will be ordained to the ministry with the Rev. O. N. Johns and Rev. E. B. Frey in charge and Rev. Stanley Shenk, a brother of the candidate, preaching the ordination sermon. Rev. Willis Breckbill, pastor of the Bethel Church, will speak at the farewell service at 7:30 pm.

The Shenks and their three children, Steven, Gloria and Barbara, are being sent to Japan under the Mennonite Board of Missions and Charities. They will sail from Seattle, Wash., on August 1 for a five-year term of service. They will spend the first two years in Tokyo engaged in language study. They plan to live and work in Hokkaido, an island where Mennonite mission work was begun seven years ago.

During the past two years the Shenks have resided at Goshen, Ind., while Mr. Shenk attended Goshen College before graduating with a B.Ed. degree in June. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Coffman Shenk, Biglerville R. 1. Mrs. Shenk is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Edward B. Frey, Pottsville, O.

The public is invited to attend the services.

RED LEADER INSULTS IKE ON BOMB CLAIM

PRAGUE (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev today labeled President Eisenhower's talk about a clean H-bomb "a stupid thing."

Speaking to workers at the Stalingrad metallurgical plant here, he gave broad approval for the development of communism according to "national peculiarities" and indicated he would hold an early meeting with President Tito in an effort to heal finally the Kremlin's rift with Yugoslavia.

"President Eisenhower is a talented man of great principles, said Khrushchev. "But look at what a stupid thing he says when he says there is a clean hydrogen bomb. How can you have a clean bomb to do dirty thing? It means the destruction of children and women. What a contradiction. They call dirty things clean."

Gets Scientists' Report

President Eisenhower told a news conference on June 26 that scientists had told him that, given four or five years more of experimentation, they can turn out a hydrogen bomb "absolutely clean" of radioactive fallout — meaning one that can be used to knock out a military target without endangering innocent bystanders far away.

The Soviet communist boss's comments on Eisenhower came at the end of an hour's talk on communism to cheering workers. With Premier Nikolai Bulganin he was being taken on a rain-spattered tour of the factory and a farm.

Ad-libbing in his favorite fashion after completing his formal address, Khrushchev made no further reference to Eisenhower.

New Red Turn

Khrushchev defended the right of individual Communist nations to develop their culture, parties and governments on the basis of their own peculiarities. It was a strong endorsement of some of the Communist gospel President Tito has long been preaching.

Speaking directly to Yugoslav journalists at the meeting Khrushchev said, "Don't write what I am saying now because when I meet comrades Tito, Kardelj and Rankovic, I will tell them myself."

His statement was the first confirmation that Khrushchev and Tito may be planning a resumption of last year's conferences in the Crimea. Yugoslav Vice President Edvard Kardelj and Yugoslav Communist leader Alexander Rankovic are now "vacationing" in the Soviet Union.

LEADER RAISES WOOD'S SALARY

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader approved yesterday legislation giving Lloyd H. Wood an increased salary as chief clerk of the State House. Wood, a Republican, lost the 1954 gubernatorial election to Leader.

The governor signed the measure without comment. It increases Wood's salary from $9,900 to $11,000 a year.

Salaries of other legislative officials also were increased.

They include: W. W. Waterhouse (Erie), secretary of the House, $8,250 to $10,500; S. Edward Moore (Cumberland), House parliamentarian, $8,000 to $10,000; A. H. Letzler, (Clearfield) $9,900 to $11,000; G. Graybill Diehm (Lancaster), Senate chief clerk, $8,250 to $10,500; Charles L. Lathero (Blair), $7,150 to $10,000.

Waterhouse, Letzler and Diehm are former members of the Legislature.

YOU WERE SAYING

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Sales resistance has reached a new high here.

A local magazine salesman told sheriff's deputies a woman answered his knock with a pistol in her hand, kept it pointed at him during what he described as a "brief and unsuccessful sales pitch."

Fabulous

ed the end was approaching.

Sold Famous Horse

Since his heart attack in February 1952, at Dacca, capital of East Pakistan, he had kept close to his Cannes palace with its marble floors and radiant heating. He began withdrawing from horse racing at that time and sold his famous horse Tulyar for $700,000.

Born in Karachi, Nov. 2, 1877, the Aga Khan claimed lineal descent from Fatima, the daughter of the Prophet Mohammed. His religious dynasty dated back to the sixth century A.D., the time of Mohammed. His name, conferred on his grandfather by the Shah of Iran (Persia), meant "Honorable Sir Chief."

Aga Khan was married four times. His first marriage, at the age of 20, was to a cousin named Shahzadi. This was a formal marriage of state and ended in divorce after a few years. His second wife, an Italian dancer named Theresa Magliano, whom he married in 1908, bore him his son, Aly. She died in 1926.

Married Salesgirl

The third wife was Andree Carron, a candy salesgirl, who bore him a second son, Sadruddin. This, too, ended in divorce, and the Aga Khan married his present wife, Yvette Blanche la Brousse, a French beauty winner, in 1944.

The Aga Khan was known for his presence of mind and a sense of humor. In August 1949 four tommygunners held up him and his wife, the Begum, on a lonely road in southern France and relieved him of jewels and money valued up to $800,000.

As the gunmen were about to flee, the Aga Khan called after them, "You overlooked my wallet with $600." The loss was covered by insurance and all but $240,000 of the loot was recovered. Six men were convicted of the holdup four years later.

Award $1,100 Test Boring Contract

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Authority yesterday awarded a $1,190 contract to Smeltzer and Faherty, Scranton, for test borings for an $800,000 men's dormitory at Bloomsburg State Teachers College.

The authority also received an unofficial low bid of $1,100 from Smeltzer and Faherty for test borings for a $250,000 maintenance shop and store building at the Laurelton State Village, Union County.

Gunite Grout Co., Inc., Conshohocken, was awarded a $68,775 contract for a filtration system and repairs to the Caledonia State Park Swimming Pool.

The authority called for bids July 31 for test borings for a $1,200,000 men's dormitory at Slipper Rock State Teachers College, Butler County.

$3,000,000 Span Is Authorized

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Department of Highways is authorized under a new law to construct a three-million-dollar bridge across the Schuylkill River between Chester and Montgomery counties.

Gov. Leader, who approved the legislation yesterday, observed however, that "this act does not mandate the construction of such a bridge."

If built, the span would extend from Firestone Blvd. in Lower Pottsgrove Twp., Montgomery County, to Route 83 in East Coventry Twp., Chester County.

SEAWAY MAKES HIGHWAY LINK TO ERIE VITAL

By JOHN KOENIG JR.
AP Special Washington Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — With construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway proceeding, concern appears to be growing among members of Pennsylvania's congressional delegation over building a first class highway to link the port of Erie with other principal centers of the commonwealth.

"We need more than one port in Pennsyvania," Rep. Frank Clark (D-Pa) told a newsman. "We can't think in terms of today—we must think of 20 years from now and beyond that."

The St. Lawrence Seaway, Clark said, offers the state the opportunity of having Erie join Philadelphia as am ajor port with access to the sea.

For Full Advantage

But to take full advantage of Erie's opportunity, said Clark, facilities must be provided to connect the city with the hinterland.

Clark this week accompanied a western Pennsylvania delegation on a visit with Bertram Tallamy, federal highway administrator.

At the meeting, representatives of Erie, Sharon, Pittsburgh and other areas urged inclusion of Route or an alternate route in the 41,000-mile federal roadbuilding program.

Clark said they were told the proposal would be given consideration if and when additional mileage is made available. Plans already have been laid for Pennsylvania's share of the giant national roadbuilding program.

Route 19 at present connects Pittsburgh and Erie but is not a dual highway. Clark suggested that the road be improved all the way from Erie through Pittsburgh to the West Virginia border.

LEADER DECIDES TO KEEP NEFF

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader said today he will retain Samuel G. Neff in his high state post on the basis of Neff "expressing regret" for an altercation that occurred with a newspaper publisher.

"I have made it plain to Mr. Neff that any participation by him in future altercations will lead to his immediate dismssal as manager of the State Workmen's Insurance Fund," the governor said in a statement.

James H March Sr., publisher of the Beaver Falls News-Tribune, asked the governor to take action against Neff. He claimed Neff, who is also Beaver County Democratic chairman, spit in his face, shoved him and then struck him twice on May 20 at a Beaver Falls hotel.

Neff Is Silent

Neff has remained silent throughout the investigation conducted by Atty. Gen. Thomas D. McBride at Leader's request.

The governor, in his new statement, said McBride discussed the probe with him. Leader added:

"This is essentially a personal matter. Yet neither man has brought the case into court for a legal settlement.

"Mr. Neff has assured me that he is sending a letter to Mr. March expressing regret that the altercation occurred."

LET $3,398,684 ROAD CONTRACTS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A $3,398,684 contract to convert nearly 11 miles of U. S. 11 to a limited access highway was awarded by the State Highways Department yesterday.

The project, awarded Kim Co. of Harrisburg, calls for removal of intersections and business establishments from near Strines town in York County to the Wet Shore interchange of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Conversion of the four-lane divided highway to a limited access route began five years ago. It is paid for with 90 per cent federal contribution.

Other Awards

Other contract awards:

Armstrong-Indiana Counties—Bituminous resurfacing of 3¼ miles of U. S. 422 between Elderton and Shelocta; Seigmund Gavlik, Glen-Willard, $1046,680.

Erie—Widen 3¼ miles of U. S. 19 from Waterford northwesterly Kebert Construction Co, Meadville, $222,211.

York—Bituminous surfacing of ¾ mile of Route 116 from Spring Grove to near St. Francis School in North Codorus Twp., Emrich Construction Co., Manchester, $199,203.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Labor and Industry Department has announced these personnel changes:

Appointment—Percy H. Clemens, York Haven, accountant, $7,744.

Dismissals — Ralph C. Sauserman, Harrisburg, tabulating machine supervisor, $5,000; William C. Swartz, Lingestown, $8,138.

Resignation — Ivan L. Mease, Hershey, employment security specialist, $9,425.

Charlie Hodge, goaltender for the Rochester Americans, was only 21 when he played in the 1955 Stanley Cup playoffs for the Montreal Canadiens.

COP, FATHER OF 3, IS SLAIN

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—A Newark patrolman was shot down and fatally wounded in the streets here last night by a Bible-toting factory worker as dozens of horrified passers-by looked on.

Patrolman Jack Woomer, 31, the father of three children, died in Beth Israel Hospital a short time later as surgeons prepared to remove a bullet from his skull.

Two other policemen were injured in the struggle which preceded the shooting, and a third, Woomer's partner, suffered shock when he saw his friend felled by the bullet.

The alleged gunman, John Henry Dancy Jr., 28, a Negro and himself the father of four, was cut down by two shots from Woomer's revolver, which Patrolman Frank Internado grabbed when his own gun jammed.

Dancy was trussed up in a straitjacket and taken to Martland Medical Center, where officials described his condition as serious.

Police were originally summoned by an attendant at a service station where Dancy was hanging around despite efforts to chase him away.

Woomer was born in Shenandoah, Pa., and came to Newark at the age of 6.

Letter to the Editor

Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I, too, am glad we have that awful stuff called mosquito spray. But as you know there is a time and place for all things. And as far as the spray odor is concerned, I don't expect it to be highly perfumed. Common sense teaches me better than that. And as far as going anywhere for a free ride to inhale fumes from some other place this is Gettysburg. I live here, where President Eisenhower resides, and I don't think he would like these fumes to flow over his table at mealtime, or anyone else.

Many times we have sat on our porches and heard the machine coming. But who would expect this at 12 o'clock noon. No one, not even this mosquito hater. To me it doesn't seem like common sense. I am not speaking for myself but think of the little children who were running holding their little noses, not mentioning the little babies. I am a health protector as well as a mosquito hater.

Exile From Moscow Ordered For Malenkov; Blood Purges Ended

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) —Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev is trying to persuade the people of Russia that the day of the Stalinist blood purge is ended.

That is the significance attached here to the astonishing exile from Moscow ordered for former Premier Georgi Malenkov after his removal from political power.

Ever since the July 3 announcement of the big political purge of Khrushchev's enemies, U.S. officials have been waiting eagerly to find out what the ultimate fate of the purge victims would be.

First Answers

Moscow radio gave the first of what may be a series of answers last night with the announcement that Malenkov has been appointed manager of a hydroelectric power station in East Kazakhstan.

This is a terrific comedown for a man who personally served dictator Joseph Stalin at the height of his power and who himself was premier for a time after Stalin's death.

Yet against the background of the decades of terror which characterized Stalin's rule—years in which removal from office was for a political leader almost the equivalent of a death sentence—Malenkov's fate falls far short of what it might have been.

Not Being Persecuted

The Soviet announcement seemed designed to point that up, saying that Malenkov and others ousted from top posts were not being persecuted were given "every opportunity" to express their views and were removed in "the most democratic (way) possible."

What seems to be significant about the Khrushchev group's decision on Malenkov's future is that he is being given another job, however unimportant, and he is not being executed.

The experts relate this to the general line of Khrushchev's policy, which seems to require a belief on the part of the Soviet people generally that the penalty for error in the Soviet Union will no longer be excessive—that failure will not mean death.

May Be Formidable Foe

Such a belief is considered especially important on the part of the thousands of lower level leaders, industrial managers and technicians.

This is regarded as tremendously important to Khrushchev's whole effort to inspire the country to new peaks of industrial and agricultural production by means which call essentially for voluntary rather than for forced labor.

Most officials here think that if Krushchev can make his methods work he may in the long run prove to be a very formidable foe for the free nations to deal with.

However, it is doubtful whether he can alter the basic conditions of the political system within which he must work. As the latest top-level shakeup has shown, this system lacks flexibility for fundamental differences over policy and personality issues.

Henpecked Husbands Need Not Apply For 15 Police Positions

By PATRICIA SMITH
The Arizona Republic

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Wanted: fifteen policemen. Henpecked husbands need not apply.

So says Capt. Dan Warren, administrative assistant to the Phoenix police chief. Warren interviews prospective cops in the city's recruiting drive to beef up the force.

He wants to make sure that a man's wedding ring is on his hand and not through his nose.

Can Be "Monster"

"For example," Warren explained, "we'll ask him why he came to Arizona. Maybe he'll say, 'Because my wife wanted to move here.'

"We'll ask him why he left his last job. Maybe he'll say, 'Because my wife wanted me to quit.' We try a few more times before we come to the conclusion the guy won't do a thing without his wife's permission, so we reject him."

The little woman can turn into a monster, Capt. Warren said, when it comes to complaining about work shifts. "That's why shifts and days off are rotated," he said. "A discontented wife means an unhappy husband."

Captain A Bit Sheepish

"If we only had the time and the manpower," he said, "we would interview the applicant's wife to see for ourselves if she objects to the duties and hours her husband would assume as a police officer. Our bet men are those with understanding wives."

What about Mrs. Warren?

"She is secretary to the police chief," admitted Warren sheepishly. "We work in the same office."

2 Women Killed When Car Hits Embankment

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Two women were killed here last night when the parked car in which they were sitting suddenly hurtled forward and smashed into a concrete embankment, police said.

Dead were Mrs. Nora Gilsenan, 70, of Belleville, and Miss Mary Kelly, 55, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Gilsenan's daughter, Helen, 43, a registered nurse, suffered multiple injuries and was taken to St. Michael's Hospital in serious condition.

The three were passengers in a car operated by James Martin, 47, of Bloomfield.

STASSEN PLANS ARMS OUTLINE

LONDON (AP)—Harold E. Stassen prepared to tell the U.N. Disarmament subcommittee today more about the U.S. proposal for beginning a partial disarmament treaty with a 10-month suspension of nuclear weapons tests.

U. S. informants said the chief American delegate promised the new statement at yesterday's subcommittee session but gave no hint whether the United States would be willing to extend the suspension period.

The Soviet Union has insisted on a halt of at least two years in weapons tests, but the U. S. sources said the Russians invited new discussions on the American proposal.

Soviet Delegate Valerian Zorin was said to have asked Stassen to elaborate on the plan, adding, "Perhaps you can convince us."

Some Western officials saw Zorin's reuest as a hopeful sign that implied willingness to negotiate. Last Monday Zorin had devoted most of a long speech to criticism and rejection of the Western position.

8 Bakery Drivers Get Safety Awards

Eight drivers of Capital Bakers, Inc., Hanover, have earned the safe driver award of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association Casualty Insurance Company for driving one and two years without being responsible for a highway accident. The bakery firm honored its drivers with a dinner at Whitie's Sea Food House, Hanover, Wednesday evening following which the awards, in the form of bronze lapel emblems, were presented to each driver by Albert Schmidt Jr., Capital vice president, and Robert H. Hunter, PMA fleet safety engineer.

Drivers who received two-year safe driving awards were: Joseph Selby, Leroy Neiderer, David Pennewill, Gerald Busby and Maurice Smith. Robert Riebling, Millard Rickrod and Richard Neiderer received the award for one-year perfect driving records.

SPONSORS MOVE TO NARROW CIVIL RIGHTS BILL TO PROTECT VOTES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sponsors moved today toward narrowing the enforcement provisions of the Eisenhower administration's civil rights bill to the single feld of protecting Negro and minority voting rights.

Sen. Francis Case (R-SD) disclosed he is drafting such an amendment. Senators Clifford Case (R-NJ) and Kuchel (R-Calif) said in separate interviews they support the principle of converting the House-passed bill into strictly a voting-rights measure.

Leaders called the Senate into session early to resume debate on a motion of Sen. Knowland of California, GOP floor leader, to bring the House measure before the Senate fo action.

New Hope On Compromise

In opposing this motion, Sen. Russell (D-Ga) and other Southerners have contended the House bill would permit the attorney general—backed by troops, if necessary—to move into the South to enforce school integration and racial desegregation in public places.

One of the developments was Russell's conference yesterday with President Eisenhower. The Georgia senator evidently brought away new hope that the administration itself will move toward a compromise.

Sen. Mansfield of Montana, assistant Democratic leader, agreed with Russell's view that the Senate will not accept the House bill without changes.

The apparent trend toward compromise brought from Rep. Celler (D-NY) a statement that "thee seems to be no fight in the administration."

Celler, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and a strong advocate of the administration-backed House bill, said, "The President bends with every wind."

Eisenhower has said his objective is to insure the voting rights of all citizens. He has expressed surprise at the interpretation Russell and others have placed on the bill's powers.

Linked To 15th

Francis Case, one of the measure's sponsors, said the amendment he is drafting would link the bill's enforcement provisions to the 15th Amendment to the Constitution. That provision says the right to vote shall not be tude.

One provision of the House bill would authorize the attorney general to seek injunctions to restrain violations or threatened violations of civil rights. Violators of these injunctions could be punished for contempt without jury trial.

Pound On Old Theme

Meanwhile, the Southerners continued to pound away on the theme that the measure would give what Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) called "Hitler-like" powers to the attorney general.

Announcing that he would have no part in any compromises, Johnston told the Senate yesterday that if the bill is passed it will set race relations in the South "back more than 100 years and bring on bloodshed."

Johnston said that as far as he is concerned, he thinks every American ought to have the right to vote. But he said the states can assure that right without federal intervention.

11-Year-Old Bride Home With Parents

MUNFORD, Tenn. (AP)—An 11-year-old child bride was home with her parents today and her father says he may seek an annulment.

Jesse H. Scott, 44-year-old divorced truck driver, and Portia Virginia Johnson were wed last May 27 at Senatobia, Miss. The bride returned to her parent's home after the ceremony, went to live with Scott June 30, then went back to her parents last Saturday.

Scott said Portia's father, Leroy Johnson, objected to the marriage but her mother didn't.

Hahneman Professor Heads Heart Assn.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dr George David Geckeler, clinical professor of medicine at Hahnemann Medical College and Hospital, today was named president of the Heart Assn. of Southeastern Pennsylvania.

He will serve as 17th president of the 35-year-old organization, which serves Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties.

His election was announced by the retiring president, Dr. Hugh Montgomery. Dr. Geckeler lives in suburban Baederwood, Montgomery County.

Dr. John H. Gibbon Jr. of Media, professor of surgery and head of surgery at Jefferson Medical College and Hospital, was named president-elect.

LAKE GEORGE, N.Y. (AP) —Isidor J. Kresel, 78, noted New York attorney who was chief counsel in the Samuel Seabury investigation of the late Mayor James Walker's administration of New York City in 1930, died Tuesday. He was born in the Russian Ukraine

York Springs

FIREMEN PLAN FOR CARNIVAL JULY 25, 26, 27

A special meeting of the York Springs Fire Company was held Tuesday evening to make arrangements for the annual carnival to be held July 26, 26 and 27. President Albert Townsend presided. Firemen are asking residents of the community to help the evening of Friday, July 19, and the following Monday to erect stands and on Tuesday, July 23, both men and women are asked to meet at "Mike" Gembe's to kill and clean chickens. Donations of pies and cakes are solicited for each night.

The kitchen and dining room schedule has been set up as follows: Thursday, July 25, ladies of Latimore community; Friday, Heidlersburg ladies, and Saturday night, ladies of York Springs with Mrs. Isabel Guise as kitchen chairman and Mrs. Nettie Bowers as chairman of the dining room.

The Mademoiselle Club met at the home of Mrs. Wreatha Glatfelter on Thursday night to make final arrangements for the rummage sale which they will hold on Saturday at Harrisburg. Any articles will be appreciated and may be taken to the library on Thursday or Friday night after 7 o'clock. The proceeds will go to the building fund.

Plan Annual Festival

Miss Kay Laudig and Miss Miriam Hogue spent the weekend at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gabbard and children, Barbara, Patty and Jean, of Connersville, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Gabbard's sister, Mrs. Elmer Coulson and family.

The Lower Bermudian Lutheran Church (Two Churches) will hold their annual festival on Saturday. The York Springs High School will furnish the music.

Miss Jean Hart, Rochester, N. Y., visited her aunt, Mrs. Margaret Franquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Racer and sons, Lawrence and Roger, recently visited the Jamestown festival, Jamestown, Va. They also visited relatives at Luray, Va.

Miss Kathryn O'Boyle has resigned as music supervisor in the Bermudian Springs Jointure and has accepted a position with the New Oxford School.

Paul Guise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guise, is visiting at Chambersburg.

The Sunnyside Cemetery Association met at the home of George B. Lay. Directors Lloyd Keefer, J. E. Behney, Merle K. Huff, Peter J. Griest, George Lay, Ross Koons and Clyde Group were present. Among the business transacted was adopting a rule to not permit excavating ground to place flower pots and no stones to be carried on the lots. No concrete baskets or winter boxes will be permitted on Sunnyside Cemetery.

Mrs. Victor Stoner who suffered a relapse at her home last week is much improved.

Wins Promotion

Corp. Larry Hess of the 6th Marines, stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C., visited his father and family over the 4th of July weekend. He received his promotion to corporal last week. He enlisted in the service last June.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Griest and Mrs. Olive Guise visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Middleton and family at Middletown on Sunday.

Mrs. Lewis Elliott, Mrs. Margaret Franquist and niece, Miss Jean Hart, visited Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Franquist's sister-in-law, Mrs. Francis P. Elliott, of Hagerstown.

The members of the class of 1932 will hold their first reunion on Sunday beginning at 2 p.m. at the York Springs High School campus. They will have a picnic supper.

Stephen Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Beard, is attending the Rhoades Grove Camp at Kauffman, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Heare and son, Gene, visited relatives in Augusta, W. Va., over the 4th of July.

LEADER SIGNS ROAD AID BILL

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader Tuesday signed a new law guaranteeing 30 million dollars a year to municipalities in state aid for local roads.

The money is distributed on a population and mileage formula. It is the same amount granted by the state last year.

Leader also signed legislation rewriting the law imposing the five-cent-a-pack cigarette tax. The measure makes no changes in the basic provisions. It is designed to strengthen enforcement provisions and clarify other sections.

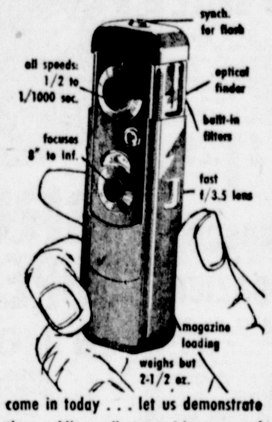

Another new law makes extensive changes to the real estate brokers license law, including prohibiting issuance of real estate salesman's licenses to partnership, association or corporations.

Leader vetoed legislation that would have prohibited annexation of any part of a second class township uness the township voters agreed.

The governor also vetoed a measure that would have given persons charged with nonsupport an extra 30 days to make first payments.

Officials Check On Border Clash

JERUSALEM (AP)—Truce officials pressed an investigation Wednesday into a 10-hour border clash between Israeli and Syrian forces which finally halted after the U.N had put out four cease-fire cals.

Israeli sources said a shepherd was killed and seven Israeli police wounded in the exchange of rifle, machine-gun and mortar fire. A Syrian army spokesman in Damascus said two Arab women and two children were wounded.

U.S. Marine Col. Byron W. Leary, acting U.N. truce chief, hastened to Damascus for talks with Syrian officials.

Leary, who put out the repeated cease-fire orders, conferred with Walter Eytan, Israeli Foreign Ministry director general, shotly after the shooting stopped at 10:45 p.m.

DEFENSE SEEKS FULL ACCESS TO FBI FILES AT KNOXVILLE TRIAL

By RELMAN MORIN

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Defense attorneys in the Clinton segregation trial were battling today for complete access to the formerly secret FBI files. They demanded to see exactly what they contain regarding the 16 accused men and women.

"We are going to try for everything we can get," a lawyer said.

The defense already has obtained one document from the FBI file — a signed statement by Robert G. Grossno, chairman of the Anderson County (Clinton) School Board.

Withholds Ruling

But it has not seen a summary of the agents' reports on the violence at Clinton.

This document is in the hands of U.S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor, who has withheld a ruling on whether defense attorneys are entitled to examine the report.

The FBI entered the Clinton case last December after riots had broken out over enrolling Negroes in the high school there. A Baptist minister, the Rev. Paul Turner, was beaten for escorting six Negroes to the schoolhouse.

On trial today are 15 Tennesseans, including a pregnant housewife. The 16th defendant is dark-haired John Kasper, New Jersey segregation leader. They are accused of flouting a federal injunction not to interfere with integrating the high school.

It is the first state-supported high school in Tennessee to mix the races.

"The defense asks for the records for the purpose of preparing for cross - examination," said George W. Williams of Baltimore, former federal district judge.

Recent Ruling Involved

"They only want the file so they can intimidate our witnesses," rumbled big-shouldered John C. Crawford, the U.S. district attorney who is prosecuting the case.

That brought a greater storm the defense side of the courtroom.

The basis for the angry disdispute was a recent Supeme Court ruling that defendants in a criminal case are entitled, under certain circumstances, to study FBI files to impeach a witness and to prepare a defense.

Defense lawyers did not disclose what Crossno's statement said.

Opening Witnesses

Crawford opened his case by calling Byron Pope, clerk in the federal court. Pope read into the record documents relating to the arrest of Kasper.

Cross-examining, William Shaw, assistant attorney general of Louisiana, bore down heavily on two dates — Dec. 5, 1956, when arrests were made in Clinton, and March 23, 1957, when Kasper was arrested.

Shaw told reporters the government arrested Kasper, over three months after the Clinton people were arrested, in order to set up its charge of a conspiracy.

FIND LOST SON IN PA. HOSPITAL

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A New York couple has been reunited with a son who disappeared four years ago. They found him at the state mental hospital here, less than a week after they had sold their home to buy a car and trailer to make a nationwide search, if necessary, for the son.

Harry A. Newton and his wife, Rebecca, both 68, had a tearful reunion with 37-year-old Victor A. Newton at the hospital yesterday. Two nurses at the hospital, learning of the Newtons' search and believing one of their patients to be the missing son, had contacted the couple in Wilmington, Del. Their trip had been interrupted there for repairs to the trailer.

The son disappeared while working as a coal salesman in Chicago. He was admitted to the hospital here on Nov. 29, 1954. The hospital records carried the notation "no relatives." He told his parents he did not want them to know what had happened to him. The reason for his admission to the hospital was not learned.

"Hot-Rodders" Cause Policemen To Quit

HUBBARDSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — State police today patrolled this town of 1,162 population after the resignation of the police chief and the entire force of three men left the town without police protection.

Police Chief Howard Taylor and his three patrolmen mailed their resignations to the Board of Selectmen Tuesday.

He said he and the other three officers resigned because of trouble with "hot-rodders," drivers of jalopies.

Taylor accused some parents of not cooperating with him in the enforcement of regulations pertaining to "hot-rodders."

DALLAS (AP)—Postal officials say the city's leash law has really helped muzzle unfriendly pooches. Postmen reported eight dog bites in June, compared with 24 in the same month last year.

SYRIAN GUNNERS RAKE ISRAELI GONNEN BORDER

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP) — An Israeli army spokesman said Syrian positions fired rifles and machine guns today on Israel's Gonnen settlement, but that no one was hurt.

Gonnen, on the west bank of the Jordan River in eastern upper Galilee, was the center of a 10-hour border skirmish Tuesday.

The army spokesman said the shooting today lasted only 15 minutes.

Military Activity

Israeli sources reported "feverish military activity and troop movements" yesterday on the Syrian side of the armistice ine.

The Tel Aviv newspaper Maariv blamed Moscow propaganda broadcasts in Arabic and Soviet bloc arms shipments to Syria for causing the border flareup Tuesday. The Israelis said one Israeli civilian was killed and seven policemen wounded in the shooting Tuesday. The Syrians said two Arab women and two children were wounded.

Attacks Unprovoked

William Baxter, American charge d'affaires, expressed hope to the Israel Foreign Ministry that Israel "would do everything to keep her border quiet." Israeli sources said the ministry told Baxter, as well as British and French diplomats, that Israel shares a hope for border peace but feels the Syrian attacks were wholly unprovoked.

The Israeli delegate to the United Nations, Mordecai Kidron, said in New York he had asked the U.N. "to take a firm line with the Syrian government and request them in strong terms to desist" from attacks.

In Damascus, the Syrian government radio charged that Israel was guilty of anti-Arab aggression in the border clash. It said the Israelis defied U.N. cease-fire orders and then falsely accused Syria of disregarding them.

INDIAN DANCES AT JAMBOREE

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — American Indians—all boy scouts—danced into the spotlight today at the 4th National Jamboree.

The Indian youths, representing tribes from across the nation, joined competition for spot talent programs throughout the remainder of the Boy Scout celebration which opens officially tomorrow.

Elsewhere in the sprawling 1,500 acre Boy Scout encampment multihued tents continued to blossom as the final campers debarked for the week-long jamboree ending July 18.

In other activities, busloads of youngsters pulled out of the military park where they toured historic spots of interest.

Also on the docket was a trip by some 5,000 of the youths to Connie Mack Stadium, Philadelphia, where they were to see the Phillies tangle with the Chicago Cubs in a night game.

DEPOSED REDS ARE NOT BEING "PERSECUTED"

LONDON (AP) — Moscow radio says none of the deposed Kremlin leaders is being persecuted.

It made that declaration in announcing that Georgi Malenkov is being hustled off to run a power plant 1,800 miles from Moscow and the other ousted leaders are getting other unspecified jobs.

The broadcast last night also asserted that the appointment of the former Premier as manager of the hydroelectric station at Ust Kamenogorsk is proof that the Soviet system is democratic.

Others Not Mentioned

But observers pointed out that Malenkov—target of the most serious accusations of the top four purged leaders—would be unabe to offer much opposition to Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev in Ust Kamenogorsk even if he should try. It's about as remote a spot as there is in the Soviet Union.

The broadcast did not give the nature of the new assignments for V. M. Molotov, Lazar Kaganovich and Dmitri Shepilov, who were ousted from their Kremlin posts along with Malenkov for "antiparty activities." It said only that they had been given other work.

Khrushchev and Soviet Premier Bulganin, meanwhile, continued their talks with Communist leaders in Czechoslovakia. Although there have been reports that Bulganin at one point sided with Malenkov and the others against Khrushchev in the struggle for power within the Kremlin, the Premier gave Khrushchev full credit yesterday "for discovering and destroying the antiparty" faction.

The tone of denunciation of Malenkov, especially, during the last few days in the Soviet Union was so violent as to suggest he might face criminal charges. But the announcement of his elle and the claim the other purged leaders are not being persecuted apparently means no such action is planned — for the time being at least.

Malenkov's new post is in the West Altai Mountains of East Kazakhstan, only 200 miles from Red China. Kazakhstan served as a place of exile in the Stalin era. Leon Trotsky, Stalin's most bitter opponent, was sent to the Kazakhstan city of Verny (now known as Alma Ata) in 1928.

CHURCH WOMEN HOLD MEETING

Twenty members and one visitor attended the July meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Centenary Methodist Church, held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Catherine Myers, S. Queen St. The group decided to order and sell foam rubber hanger covers. Plans were made for the annual Sunday School picnic to take place on Saturday, July 27, at "Yohnder Acres," near town. There will be recreation and the evening meal will be enjoyed, picnic style.

The birthdays of Mrs. Mayers and Mrs. Ruth Withrow were noted. The surprise package was won by Mrs. Evelyn Brown. During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Mayers, Mrs. Ira Wulfert and Mrs. Mary Fuss. The society will meet again on Tuesday, August 13, and the hostesses will be Mrs. Alice Yohn, Mrs. Margaret Burr and Mrs. Isabelle Nester. The place of meeting will be announced later.

The annual picnic for members of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club, Inc. and their families will be held on Sunday at Cunningham Falls, near Thurmont Md. A picnic meal will be enjoyed at 12:30 p.m. In case of rain, the affair will be postponed one week to July 21.

Class Holds Outing

Members of the Ever Willing Class of St. John's Lutheran Church had on outing at Garrett's Pool, Hanover, on Tuesday evening. A picnic style supper was served in charge of Mrs. Dewey Baumgardner and Mrs. James Duttera. There were games for the group and swimming. An outdoor meeting will be held in connection with the gathering next month, on Tuesday, August 13. Each member will take sandwiches and a dish to be shared. The place for the affair will be decided upon later.

Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6954, Veterans of Foreign Wars met on Tuesday evening with Commander Malcolm Harner in charge. The post voted a contribution of $5 to the Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown for the club's proposed Tot-Lot project. Earl J. Weaver announced plans for the annual stag picnic to be held on Sunday, August 18, at Myers Grove, near Bonneauville.

One new member was received into the post, Edward H. Runk. The following members are attending the district encampment sessions now going on at Harrisburg: Commander Harner, Charles F. Bridinger, Bernard Kuhns, James Kuhns, Earl Weaver, Robert L. Snyder and Edgar Wisotzkey. The post will meet again on Tuesday, July 23, at 8 p.m.

Rep. Malliard Weds Easton Socialite

EASTON, Pa. (AP)—Rep. William Somers Malliard (R-Calif) and Miss Cora Millicent Fox, daughter of a prominent Pennsylvania lawyer, were married yesterday at Skylands, the Fox estate here.

Malliard is a graduate of the Taft School and Yale University.

Scranton U. Secures $700,000 Federal Loan

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal loan of $700,000 to the University of Scranton, at Scranton, Pa., was approved today by the Community Facilities Administration.

The university is to use the money, plus $110,000 of its own funds, for construction of four dormitories for 200 men students.

The name of Paraguay is derived from the Indian words, "paragua" meaning Crown of Palms, and "I" meaning river, or "River Crowned With Palms."

GRAHAM NEARS MILLION MARK IN N.Y. CRUSADE

NEW YORK (AP) — Two great powers consider man's soul the most important thing in the world even though man himself may not think so, says evangelist Billy Graham.

The Baptist minister from North Carolina told 18,000 persons in Madison Square Garden last night that God and Satan wage a continuous battle for man's soul.

Graham took as his text Matthew 16:4—"For what is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul."

At the evangelist's call for "decisions for Christ," 509 persons came forward, raising the total of the crusade so far to 29,236. Total attendance since the New York crusade started May 15 is 948,000.

Graham announced that he will conduct a second religious crusade in San Francisco, starting April 27. Graham preached several years ago in the San Francisco Coliseum. Next April's crusade, which is expected to last at least four weeks, will be held in the Cow Palace.

Mental Hospital Not Needed: Bloom

HARRISBURG (AP) — Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom maintained today a state mental hospital in Delaware County was no longer needed.

He attacked Gov. Leader's veto of a measure which would have repealed a 1953 law authorizing construction of the 20-million-dollar institution to be known as the Haverford Mental Health Center.

"If anything, it will turn out to be a professional social workers' dream come true in which they will be able to meddle in the private lives and concerns of everyone, all in the name of prevention of mental illness," Bloom said in a statement.

He estimated the institution would cost taxpayers 200 million dollars "unnecessarily" in the next 30 years. He based the figures on interest costs, overhead, architects' fees and maintenance over 30 years.

In the year 1275, explorer Marco Polo reported that he saw noblemen in China wearing eyeglasses.

CHARGES STATE IS "HARRASSING" FIRM TO LOSSES

By BOB HOLTON

HARRISBURG (AP)—Charles W Stickler Jr. testified at the turnpike conspiracy trial Wednesday that the commonwealth was "harassing" the Manu-Mine Research and Development Corp. in its present business operations.

Stickler, Manu-Mine president made the statement under cross-examination.

Stickler said he blamed recently financial losses by Manu-Mine to "the harassment of vendors, suppliers, and all our contact people by the commonwealth."

Lost Money Last Year

He testified that "state interference" caused the company to lose money in the last year on a U.S. Navy contract.

Dep. Atty. Gen. Vincent G. Panati cross-examined Stickler on earnings the Manu-Mine president made during late 1954 and part of 1955 under the turnpike contract.

"In 1950, the year before your first turnpike contract, how much money did you make that year?' Panati asked.

"I was with Penn State on a part time basis, let's say on a free and open basis, and Penn State paid me $5,912 as an associate professor of mining," Stickler replied.

"How much money did you make in the 1955 fiscal year?"

"I made $26,400 in salary and a bonus of $35,000."

Panati queried him about increase in stock value of Manu-Mine.

"Oh, the stock fortunately did increase in value," Stickler testified.

"In 1955, the stock rose to $42,000 a share, didn't it?" Panati asked.

"Paper Profit"

Stickler agreed with the statement but said this "was merely a paper profit."

Panati said the shares sold for $300 when the company was formed three years earlier.

"In 1955, while working almost ecusively with the turnpike you (Stickler) made close to a milion dollars, didn't you?" Panati asked.

"I'd like to see the million," Stickler replied. "I made salary and bonus and a paper figure in stocks."

Evans His Uncle

Stickler testified that in the latter part of 1955 all the stock of Manu-Mine was owned by himself, his wife and his cousin, the late Richard H. Evans, son of former Commission Chairman Thomas J. Evans. The elder Evans is among the nine defendants.

Early in the cross examination Stickler complained when Panati referred to Evans as "your uncle."

"I'd like you to refer to him as Mr. Evans and not my uncle," Stickler said. "In our business relationship with the turnpike it was always Mr. Evans."

At one point Stickler questioned the "authenticity and truthfulness" of statements made by Panati. The latter asked that the remark be stricken from the record. Judge Homer L. Kreider ordered it out.

CHARGES LOBBY "SABOTAGED" BILL ON JUDGES

HARRISBURG (AP)—Rep. H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria) said Wednesday that bills increasing authority of the State Supreme Court to assign judges outside their district "were sabotaged by a powerful lobby" at the recent session of the Legislature.

Andrews spoke out on legislation increasing pensions of judges of the state, which passed and was signed by Gov. Leader. The other bills, giving the Supreme Court authority to assign judges to other districts with crowded calendars died in the Senate after passing the House.

"As a legislator," Andrews said in his statement, "I had abundant reason to believe that the judges' pension plan and the Supreme Court bills would trave as a package in both House and Senate. That's the way they travelled in the House. The Supreme Court bills, however, perished in the Senate. They were sabotaged by a powerful lobby. The judges say they were not responsible for the sabotage and, of course, the judges are honorable men.

Refers To Lobby

"Had I not been led to believe that the judges' pension bill and the Supreme Court bills would travel as a package, I woud have opposed the judges' pension bill on the floor of the House. The representations that were made to me were made by persons I believed to be accredited spokesmen for the judicial lobby, a lobby which is on hand here in Harrisburg whenever legislative matters affecting the financial interests of the judiciary are pending."

Andrews said he hoped the judges "will give a helping hand" at the 1959 session of the Legislature for passage of the other bills.

Andrews said the judges' pensions were so broadened that jurists "incapable of rendering a full-time service by reason of either physical or mental affirmities will promptly retire and go on a pension."

NEW SAFE IODINE TREATMENT STOPS ATHLETE'S FOOT ITCH —HEALS RAW, PEELING TOES
The way 9 out of 10 doctors recommend

New York, N. Y.—Now you can get fast relief of athlete's foot itch and burn—speed healing of sore, cracked, peeling toes—with an amazing new complete home treatment.

Science at last has found the way to make iodine, world's greatest germ-killer, so safe and gentle it is recommended for use on feet and toes. So powerfully antiseptic that in clinical tests it cleared up athlete's foot infections of long duration, even of some of the worst, most active cases! Yet so gentle it can't hurt even a baby's tender skin.

Best of all, this new treatment combines what 9 out of 10 doctors recommend. First, a powerful antiseptic that actually kills the dreaded fungus Trychophyton Interdigitale and other lesser fungi associated with athlete's foot. Almost instantly relieves itching, burning, smarting; helps raw, cracked toes heal fast. Second, a medicated powder containing the same safe, painless iodine discovery to help prevent re-infection, and keep feet dry and odor-free.

This complete treatment takes only seconds to apply. Forms a soothing film that retains full germ-killing power for hours. Greaseless, stainless—washes from skin and wool or cotton socks.

Stop suffering from itching, burning, smarting feet—or athlete's foot. Get swift relief this remarkable new way. Ask for ISODINE Athlete's Foot Treatment. Guaranteed results. Money back if not satisfied. Only $1.39

NIXON'S HOME IS INSPECTED BY NEWSWOMEN

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Showing her new home to Washington newswomen took more planning by Pat Nixon than a whooping "open house" for family friends

The wife of the vice president sent handwritten "informals" to about 30 of newswomen and she met each of us at the door herself. The women brought out pads and pencils as soon as they entered the door of the handsome $75,000 mansion and Mrs. Nixon answered questions as they toured through every room — the cool blue-toned rooms on the first floor her husband's study off a landing on the second floor, the pale gray-green master bedroom, the pink bedroom, of Tricia, 10, and the blue one of Julie, 8.

After coffee in the dining room, she held an informal press conference in the drawing room with some women sitting on the floor.

Everything In Orde

Everything was in apple-pie order throughout the house. Personal effects such as clothing and toiletries all had been stashed out of sight. The exception was the girl's rooms, where dolls and mementos brought back from the Nixons' far-flung travels were in evidence.

Only the white telephone in the master bedroom gave evidence of who owned the house. Among its listing of extensions was the direct line to the White House

There were no ties, no comfy slippers, no bedside pill bottles, no books. Except for a small plant, the fancy burgundy-trimmed bathroom with its glassed-in shower and big dressing table — which Pat said she's turned over to her husband — was like any you'd see in a store window. Pat said she used a small bath also off the master bedroom.

"Dress In A Minute'

"I don't need a lot of room," she explained. "I can get dressed in a minute, putting on my makeup while I stand up."

Mrs. Nixon said she knew all the colors she wanted and had bought what new furniture she needed all in one day before they took off on their trip to Africa. Friends had the place in partial readiness by the time they spent their first night back in the new home.

"The kitchen is the most fun in the house," Pat exclaimed as the tour wound up in the completely modernized sunny yellow room. "We even eat there. The children love it."

So does Checkers, the much-publicized family cocker spaniel. She was lying happily under the table until the invasion of the newswomen when she barked her objection and had to be banished.

Virginia Town Has Deliberate Council

COLUMBIA, Va. (AP) — Town council is pretty deliberate here in this town of 119 residents. There hasn't been a council election since 1951 and nobody gave it much thought until Bernard Dickerson wanted the town to open a street that was first planned 179 years ago.

Council opposed the idea and stood off a challenge to its legality in office when the circuit judge said members, in effect, had been legally reappointing themselves over the years.

Relieved, council members decided they better have an election this year and win undisputed legal status. But they missed out on this one too. The county attorney said the town charter provides for candidates to file for office 60 days in advance of an election set for the fourth Thursday in May. Nobody got around to filing.

TWO HOBBIES DEVELOP THIRD

OTTAWA, Ill. (AP) — Miss Alice H. Dean, 79, has combined two hobbies — stamp collecting and art — to develop a novel third.

She cuts the colors from postage stamps, pastes them down in designs and water colors the background.

Miss Dean originated the idea during Woorld War I as an occupational therapy technique for soldiers returning from war

At a center she established in St. Louis, Mo she decided they needed something to till their time and take their minds off their troubles.

"I hit upon the idea of taking the colors from postage stamps and putting a design on a penny postcard. These served for Christmas greetings to the soldier's relatives," she said.

Miss Deans artistic talent has kept her busy all her life. She once designed Oriental rugs for a Chicago department store. Her designs were sent to India where the rugs were made to order

One of her best pictures is a scene portraying a colonial stage coach waiting at an inn. It is made up of 600 stamps.

CLEAR NOW?

DETROIT, (AP) — Philip Corton O'Neal asked Probate Court to change his name because of "too much confusion." He wanted it changed to Mohandus Takai Asaka.

HI-FI BRINGS OLD STANDBYS NEW POPULARITY

By HUGH MULLIGAN
The Associated Press

Whatever became of the big band?

You remember, the big name band with the big name singer and the high priced arranger and the big talking press agent that used to travel across the country in a great big bus making big, big music and heap big money?

What happened to it?

Bands Back

Folks down in Tinpan Alley used to ask this question the way people inquired after the whereabouts of Judge Crater and the passenger pigeon. But before any of them got around to answering it the big name band was heard again throughout the land—on records at any rate.

Sammy Kaye, Russ Morgan, Glen Gray, Vaughn Monroe and a lot of the other big names were back at the same old band stand, making the same sweet sounds, just as if they'd never been away.

Historically, this is what happened: The era of the big band came in the '20s and the Charleston, hit a peak in the '30s when jazz stood still long enough for a crooner to catch the beat, and then disappeared suddenly in the '40s because of a combination of rising costs, television and wartime restrictions on travel.

Some Survived

Guy Lombardo, Lawrence Welk and Fred Waring, it is true, have just about always been with us, but many of the big bands went out of business or formed into more economical combos.

Then came the postwar phenomenon called high fidelity and a resulting boom in record sales. The same type of audience that boosted Welk into top television ratings and made Lombardo a musical Creosus set up a clamor for more and more dance music of the big name band variety. Fortunately, the old tapes, the old arrangements and in many cases the old musicians were still around, ready to begin a second life.

The era of the big band may be dead, but its melody lingers on at the record counters. The old names and the old tunes have been wrapped up in bright new packages and are winning back old friends and gaining a lot of new ones

Old Standbys

Glen Gray is as smooth and saxophony as ever doing "Sunrise Serenade," "Smoke Rings" and other old standbys in Capitol's "Casa Loma" in Hi-Fi. Vaughn Monroe was never better than in Decca's "Dreamland Special." Sammy Kaye, Xavier Cugat, Les Brown and a half-dozen other big name bands bring back the good old days in Columbia's "Dance, Be Happy."

Guy Lombardo wields his bouncy baton over 10 years of Broadway musical history in Capitol's "Decade on Broadway" and a batch of old favorites along with some novelty tunes in Decca's "Twin Piano Magic." Thumping merrily at one of the pianos is Fred Kreitzer, who started out with the Lombardo organization 35 years ago in London, Ontario at the pre-Petrillo salary of $15 a week.

Further evidence that the big band is still aroune is afforded by Carmen Cavallero's "Rome At Midnight" (Decca) Ray Anthony's "Dancer in Love" (Capitol), Louis Jordan's "Somebody Up There Digs Me" (Mercury), Gordon Jenkins' "Night Dreams" (Capitol), and RCA Victor's outstanding two-volume "Salute to Tommy Dorsey," which practically spans the whole era of the big band.

FAMILY AFFAIR

WELCH, Okla. (AP) — School officials selected Larry Swango as valedictorian of the high school graduating class here and Lora Mae Durham as salutatorian.

They they learned it was a family affair. The two 17-year-old seniors were married secretly last August, but it wasn't disclosed until the bride's mother found the marriage license in her daughter's room.

JUSTICE REED RETIRES BUT ROUTINE STAYS

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Justice Stanley F. Reed stepped down from the U. S. Supreme Court last February after 19 years service but retirement has barely caused a ripple in his daily routine.

"He goes over to his office at the court every day, even on Sunday," says Mrs. Reed with mild amusement. "He keeps the same hours. He doesn't work nights; that's the only difference."

In the old days, Mrs. Reed explained, the justice used to go back to the court at night unless she took him off to a social function.

"I always thought the change from his work would do him good," she said as she sat in the homey, antique-filled living room of the mid-town hotel apartment they have occupied for 27 years.

Make Room For Youth

The 73-year-old justice retired, his wife said, because he "thought the great pressure of having to read much on both sides before writing an opinion on a case before the Court was a little too hard on him."

"He thought it better to move down so that a younger man who could do more could be appointed to his place," she added. "He still reads a great deal, mostly in preparation for speeches he's making all over the country. Whatever he does he goes into in a big way. He's out of the house every morning by 9:30 and doesn't return until after 7 p.m., and he still walks to the court as he always did. He used to be a runner in his college days."

Subject To Call

Under the retirement law, Reed is still a member of the court and subject to call to act as a judge in any federal court. At the court, Reed shares an office suite with Justice Sherman Minton who retired in 1956.

The Reeds, among the capital's most popular official couples, still keep up the active social life. Mrs. Reed has often been called the "Mona Lisa of Washington Society" because of her slow enigmatic smile. Her interests are centered around her husband, their sons and grandchildren. Both John A. and Stanley F. Reed Jr. are lawyers practicing in New York. Stanley has three youngsters, Stanley F. Reed III, 7, Gernee, 3, and Harriett, 2.

CHESTER, Ill. (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton sent "best wishes for success in this field of service" to Menard Time on the 24th anniversary of nearby Menard Penitentiary's newspaper.

EXPERTS SPLIT ON NEW STATUS OF KHRUSHCHEV

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. experts on Russia were reported split today on their estimates of the amount of real power now exercised by Soviet Communist party chief Nikita Khrushchev In the wake of the Kremlin shakeup.

So far they have come up with three estimates covering major possibilities:

1. Khrushchev's well along the way to becoming a virtual dictator. The system of collective rule which was installed upon Stalin's death for years ago is doomed.

2. Khrushchev is still the "first among equals" or the "chairman of the board" of a collective rule system. With his most formidable critics out of the way, however, he can now expect far more support and much less opposition.

Lack Real Facts

3. Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov may be the real strong man. Zhukov represents the military power, and Khrushchev could not have continued as Communist party boss without his support.

These varied theories reflect a lack of hard information.

State Department officials have been deeply interested in reports from Communist sources, mainly in Eastern Europe, that Khrushchev's foes in the Presidium precipitated the crisis that resulted in their ouster. They were V. M. Molotov, Lazar Kaganovich, Georgi Malenkov and Dmitri Shepilov.

Not Certain Of Cause

Khrushchev has accused the four of trying to seize power. They have been denounced for wanting to return to Stalinism, which seems to suggest that they favored a reversion to dictatorship and that Khrushchev and Zhukov were against it.

U.S. officials say privately they are not at all certain what issue focused the dissension or even whether the policy questions were of vital importance in the crisis. Personal ambitions on the part of some of the ousted men, particularly Malenkov and Shepilov, who are both relatively young men, may have provided the real motivations on their side.

Watch For Followship

Informants said that what the Khrushchev group now does with the men may indicate how he will develop his power, assuming he is the strong man. Harsh action would probably bring the conclusion that Khrushchev is building himself into a dictator by wiping out opposition.

But if these men are simply consigned to political oblivion, the tendency will be to think that the present Soviet leadership wants to continue to prove that it has really abandoned the ruthless ways of Stalin, that it wants collective leadership to work, and that while it cannot tolerate conspiracy in high places it has some tolerance for the conspirators as individuals.

Singer, Hubby Sail For France Apart

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia singer Ethel Rider and her husband Jacques Cachot, a French ship's officer, are on their way to his home country for a visit but they aren't travelling together.

He's an officer on the Ile de France and a company rule bars a crew member's wife from sailing on the same ship. Cachot saw his wife off on the Flandre in the morning, then sailed on the Ile de France that afternoon.

POLICE CHASE ENDS IN DEATH

WASHINGTON (AP)—A car which led police on a tire-squealing chase through Washington's northeast outskirts brought death early today to one girl and critical injuries to another.

Police identified the dead girl as Patsy Zobroski, 15, a passenger in the car. They said the driver, Louise Heninzel, 18 was injured critically. Both are from McAdoo, Pa., near Hazleton.

Patrolmen Wiliam A Duvall and Ronald W. Lanthrup said they observed a speeding 1957 car on Baltimore Avenue in Hyattsville and ordered the driver to pull over after it stopped for a traffic light.

Instead, they said, the car spurted ahead twoard Washington, leading them at speeds of up to 115 m.p.h.

The chase ended at Rhode Island Ave. and 4th St., in northeast Washington, when the car overturned.

Police said the car in which the girls were riding had been reported stolen by Army Sgt. Melvin Stolls from the Indiantown Gap (Pa.) Military Reservation.

3rd Army Head Upholds Sentence

ATLANTA (AP)—The conduct of guided missile expert Col. John C. Nickerson was "unlawful and reprehensible," the commander of the 3rd Army said Tuesday in approving his court-martial sentence for misuse of secret defense information.

Lt. Gen. Thomas F. Hickey delivered the rebuke in an official reprimand as he ordered into execution the sentence handed down June 29 after a five-day trial at Redstone Arsenal at Huntsville, Ala.

The case still must be reviewed by the Department of the Army and Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson.

In addition to the reprimand and a $100 a month fine for 15 months, the 41-year-old West Point graduate was suspended from rank for one year.

Says Elbow-Bending By Pastors Perilous

LOMA LINDA, Calif. (AP) — Elbow-bending pastors who take an occasional social cocktail may be responsible for turning some of their parishioners into skid row drunkards.

This is the opinion of Dr. Winton H. Beaven of Washington, D. C., who on Tuesday told the eighth annual Institute of Scientific Studies for the Prevention of Alcoholism: "The minister may be able to hold his liquor, but some saint in the church who follows his example and takes to drink may end up on skid row. . .

"If the minister drinks, then members of the congregation will do likewise."

JUDGE RULES COUPLE MAY ADOPT HILDA

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Circuit Judge John W. Prunty ruled Wednesday that Hilda McCoy, 6-year-old daughter of a Roman Catholic woman, may be adopted by a Jewish couple who raised her.

The judge ruled that Hildy is "suitable for adoption" and that Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ellis, who have had custody of the child since she was 10 days old, are "fit and proper persons to adopt her."

Attorneys for the State of Massachusetts and for Mrs. Marjorie McCoy Doherty, Hildy's natural mother, are expected to appeal the decision to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Moved To Florida

Ellis, a 45-year-old clothing salesman, and his wife took Hildy as an infant, allegedly with the consent of her mother. But when they tried to adopt her, they were turned down in Massachusetts courts under a state law which provides for adoptions by persons of the same religious faith in which the child was born.

Rather than comply with court orders to surrender Hildy to Massachusetts welfare authorities, Ellis gave up his business in Brookline, Mass., and moved to Florida.

A kidnapping indictment was returned against the Ellises but Florida's Gov. Leroy Collins refused to send them back.

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the 20th century the Democratic and Republican parties — no matter what their campaign promises — have never passed a civil rights bill through Congress.

Republicans are trying it now in face of a Senate filibuster by Southern Democrats. If they win, some political careers may be affected. And Republican hopes for future election victories — based on expectation of a grateful Northern Negro vote — go up.

Presidents Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower have helped eliminate racial discrimination — by executive order. But Democrats' promises of action on a civil rights bill through Congress have been a political joke.

Couldn't Make Good

They couldn't, as a party, make good. Southern Democrats were always there to block the way with a filibuster. Any filibuster coud have been broken if enough Northern and Western Democrats and Republicans were willing to team up to do it. It never happened.

The outnumbered Republicans can't do it now unless enough of them, plus enough Northern and Western Democrats, join forces. That remains to be seen. Despite present excitement, passage of a civil rights bill now is far from a fact.

There is political irony in the present situation. In Congress, where they are the minority party, the Republicans are leading the way. Sen. Knowland of California Senate Republican leader is captain on the civil rights side.

Bound To Benefit

He can get only political good out of this, win or lose. He is leaving the Senate next year and may seek the Republican presidential nomination in 1960. He can expect Northern Negroes, if he should get the nomination, to remember him as a man who fought for civil rights.

On the other hand the Senate's Democratic leader, Lyndon Johnson of Texas, is on a hot spot. He's a Southerner. But he's a man who also may have presidential ambitions in 1960.

If he votes against this civil rights bill his chances of heading the Democratic ticket diminish, if they're not wrecked. If he doesn't oppose it in some way — if only by trying to get the bill softened by amendments — he may hurt himself in Texas. He's been staying pretty much in the background.

And right beside Knowland stands Vice President Nixon, who at the moment might seem to have the inside track for the Republican nomination three years from now. For that matter, most of the Republicans are standing with Knowland.

Light In Window Brings Firemen

PATERSON, N. J. (AP) — A tenant burning the midnight oil in his apartment was rudely awakened by the arrival of three fire engines and a hook and ladder truck.

The tenant, Cristno Cepeda, told firemen he was reading by candlelight near the window. A passer-by had called the fire department to report a "blaze" in the Cepeda apartment.

REUNION HELD

The Kuykendall-Kessel annual reunion was held Sunday at the South Mountain Fairgrounds, near Arendtsville. Around two hundred persons attended. The picnic lunch was served at noon after which games were played. Prizes were awarded as follows: oldest person, Isaac Kuykendall, Gettysburg R. 3; couple married the longest, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Kuykendall, R. 3; persons who traveled the longest distance, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuykendall, Indianola, Ill.; couple with the most children living at home, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kuykendall, Biglerville; couple married most recently, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Mummert, Abbottstown; youngest baby, Kenneth Shultz, 13-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shultz, Fairfield. Out-of-town persons attending the reunion were from Carlisle, Mt. Holly, Abbottstown, Waynesboro, York, Danville, Ill.; Indianola, Ill., and Georgetown, Ill. The next reunion will be held on July 6, 1958, at the same place.

Prepare For Battle On Huge Kinzua Dam

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York's two U.S. senators prepared today to battle against approval of a one million dollar appropriation to begin construction of a huge flood control dam at Kinzua, Pa.

The fund, included in President Eisenhower's budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1958, already has won House approval and on Tuesday apparently gained a nod from a Senate appropriations sub committee.

Sen. Martin (R—Pa), a proponent of the dam project, told a newsman that no official announcement will be made until the ful Senate committee acts, but he indicated a long list of House-approved projects for Pennsylvania were advanced for full committee consideration.

BANKER IS PUT ON PROBATION

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — D. Martin Beach, 51, former vice president of the bank of Newberry, outside Williamsport, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation Wednesday for five years on charges of making false entries involving $11,403.

Judge Frederick V. Follmer disposed of the case against Beach in U.S. District Court. Then Beach went to the Lycoming County Court House and pleaded guilty to the same charge in a state case. Judge Charles F. Greedy also placed Beach on probation.

Both judges made restitution as a condition to the probation. Beach's attorneys informed the court he has already paid back $3,155 and arrangements are being made to raise the remainder.

Beach pleaded guilty to the federal charge on June 2. At that time Judge Follmer put off disposition of the case until probation authorities conducted a presentence investigation.

W. Stuart Helm To Defend GOP On TV

HARRISBURG (AP)—Speaker W. Stuart Helm (R-Armstrong) was named Wednesday to defend the Republican Legislature from the attack made by Gov. Leader Tuesday night.

Helm will appear on television for a half hour next Tuesday night.

Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom, who chose Helm to make the reply, said it will be carried on the same stations as those which gave Leader free time as a public service. They are WTPA, Harrisburg; WGAL, Lancaster; KDKA, Pittsburgh; WJAC Johnstown; WICU, Erie; WILK, Wilkes - Barre; WSBA, York; WRCV, Philadelphia, and WGLV, Easton.

Jap Prime Minister Dismisses Cabine

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese Prim Minister Nobusuke Kishi Wednesda dismissed the Cabinet he inherited 4½ months ago from Tanza Ishibashi, and formed an almo completely new government.

Kishi retained only Hirohid Ishida, the chief Cabinet secretary, and Mitsujiro Ishii, his ow appointee as deputy prime minister. Ishida was moved up to labo minister.

The Cabinet shakeup had bee expected for some time. Fe changes in the Conservative gov ernment's policies were expecte to result from the reshuffle, whic was done to reconcile rival fac tions in the ruling Liberal-Democratic party rather for policy rea sons.

All 17 ministers submitted thei resignations at a special Cabine meeting.

get an Electric Water Heater and...
LIVE BETTER...Electrically

Compare a modern, completely automatic ELECTRIC water heater with any other water heating method for safety.

You have to watch an old-fashioned, open-flame heater. The outside surface is often hot. You have to remember to turn it on and off, up and down. Vents must be provided for smoke, fumes and odors.

An electric water heater is safe! It never needs watching. There is no danger because there are no flames or fumes. The outside is always cool.
